Nor must we forget to add to this large sums of money which have been raised for local purposes in different places; for example, £80 for the repairs of Heart's Content Church, and £80 for New Perlican Church—both in one Mission; and upwards of £250 in Greenspond for the new Church there; as well as the sum of nearly £200 from the whole Diocese for the Widows and Orphans Fund. These matters shew that there is much more contributed than appears in the Subscription List forwarded to the Society.

The Committee have much pleasure in laying before this meeting several Letters which have been received from Clergymen, respecting the support which the Society meets with in their missions.

The Rev. W. K. WHITE, of Harbor Briton, thus writes—

"I beg leave herewith to transmit my Church Society Returns, with the amount of Subscriptions received. The names are fewer this year than last, but as the subscriptions of those wanting have heretofore been paid through the Merchants' offices and not to me in person, I cannot explain the deficiency.

"I had flattered myself that I should have reached at least my last
