

(2) The increase of the offerings in response to the Epiphany and Ascensiontide Appeals, by the circulation of information throughout each parish, and by conversation with their own family and friends.

(3) Zenana work.

(4) The securing of annual subscriptions from all who may be willing to contribute in this way to Domestic and Foreign Missions, and especially from those who may not give through the offertory.

(5) The maintenance and extension of an intelligent, loving missionary spirit in every parish during the intervals between the Epiphany and Ascensiontide Appeals.

(6) The Board would in particular press the education of the children (especially the daughters) of the missionary Clergy.

The Board would indicate respectfully to the Woman's Auxiliary the importance of avoiding all intrusion upon the work or methods used by any diocesan or parochial organization or machinery for the promotion of local or home objects.

And in conclusion this Board acknowledges with gratitude the good work of the Woman's Auxiliary in the past.

5.—APPOINTMENT AND DUTIES OF CORRESPONDING COMMITTEES.

That the Board of Management does respectfully and earnestly request the Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Representatives of each Diocese in this Ecclesiastical Province in Synod assembled to appoint a Corresponding Committee, in accordance with Article VII, of those most deeply interested in the Church's missionary work, to promote in every way open to them within their Diocese the large and important interests committed to the Board of Management of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and to correspond with the Board of Management. That the following be submitted to the Bishop, Clergy, and Lay Representatives of each Synod as duties which might, if they approve and see fit so to order it, be assigned to such Corresponding Committee:—
