

Penalty for disobedience.

specation of the Municipal Authorities thereof, or their officers, reasonable notice thereof being previously given to the said Company; and the said Company, and their servants, or workmen, shall at all times obey all just and reasonable orders and directions they shall receive from the said Municipal Authorities in that respect, under a penalty of not more than five pounds, nor less than one pound currency for each offence, in refusing or neglecting to obey the same, to be recovered from the said Company, at the suit and for the use of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Montreal, in any Court of competent Civil Jurisdiction, except the Court constituted under and by virtue of any Act incorporating the City of Montreal.

If the Company neglect to perform certain work, the same may be done by the City Surveyor at their cost.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in case the said Company shall open or break up any street, square, or public place in the said City, and shall neglect to keep the passage of the said street, square, or public place, as far as may be, free and uninterrupted, or to place guards or fences, with lamps, or to place watchmen, or to take every necessary precaution for the prevention of accidents to passengers and others, or to close and replace the said streets, squares or public places, without unnecessary delay, as hereinbefore provided, the City Surveyor, under the direction of the
