

"I GUESS THE BRIDGE WILL GO IF SOMETHING IS NT DONE RIGHT AWAY WE'D BETTER DRIVE OVER AND TELL THE REEVE ABOUT IT ATONCE."

THE 'PHONE MIGHT HAVE SAVED THE BRIDGE AND HELPED ON THE GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

Our first magneto telephone cost over $18,000. Expert labor, experimental work, demonstration and highest quality of material has enabled us to produce the best telephone manufactured. We invite comparison.

From the Silver Country.

TEMISKAMING TELEPHONE CO., LTD.,

New Liskeard, Ont., 6th Dec., 1909.

Canadian Independent Telephone Co.,

20 Duncan St.,

Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—

We have your favor of the 1st and note contents. We have not been using your apparatus very long, hut during the few months in which we have used same, telephones in particular, they have given perfect satisfaction, being easy to keep in repair and very distinct in carrying sound.

Yours very truly,

TEMISKAMING TELEPHONE CO., LTD.

(Signed) P. R. Craven,

Sec'y-Treasurer.