gratulations have come from every quarter.

Business men are well pleased with the experiment, and Mr. Levy has been offered all sorts of inducements to return again next year at any time and for any period. Mr. Joseph Hall, the secretary of the board of trade, has acted as steward thruout the meeting, and the reports he has received from the members of that organization are very gratifying.

Hotels that have subscribed to the recent meeting have signified their intention to be even more liberal, than they were this year, and the street car company increased its subscription voluntarily from $300 to $500. Such encouragement and the fact that Mr. Bob Levy and his brother Ren met expenses and possibly realized $1000 on this meeting will induce them to continue next spring, and they will probably make application for dates early in April and run a meeting prior to the opening in New York.

President Duff read the tetter from J. Ross Robertson, donating cups for the intermediate and junior series. Frank Nelson moved an acceptance, and Rev. A. F. Barr seconded it, both speakers paying a warm tribute to the high qualities of the donor. Mr. Robertson made an appropriate reply.

carried. There was no opposition.

The age limit brought up a warm discussion. J. T. Sutherland of Kingston introduced it by moving that the junior age limit be kept at 20 years and not reduced to 19. Bert Short seconded the motion and Teddy Marriott spoke in favor declaring that out of 40 players he tried cut last year under 19. he could not pick seven who knew how to play. Mr. Farquharson of Stratford. Mr. Connolly of Belleville and Frank Nelson spoke in opposition. Oshawa also supported the 19 year limit. Peterboro, Paris, Berlin, St. Michael's College, Newmarket and Midland favored the motion. Mr. Robertson thought they might give the 19 year limit one year's trial.

The motion finally carried, fixing the junior age limit at 20 years, only 10 voting against it.

Other motions carried were:

When the executive appoints a referee he shall be paid $5 and shall be allowed expenses at the rate of 10 cents a mile one way, to a total minimum of $5, except in cases of local referees. Each club to pay half. Local referees are entitled to $5 a game.

When the puck hits the referee play shall cease and the puck be fa ced where the accident occurs.

Mr. Robertson moved and Mr. Nelson seconded a resolution to send a message to Mr. D. D. Darroch, former president, and who is now ill, expressing good wishes and the hope that he might be speedily restored to health. Carried unanimously. The Alexandra Yacht Club held their annual at-home and presentation of prizes in Birrell's parlors, East Queen street, where they entertained their friends to the number of one bundred and fifty with the number of one bundred and thry with cards and dancing.

We understand that the guests of the club have a movement under way asking the committee to arrange that the club make these at-homes a feature during the winter months, which speaks well for the appreciation of those present.

Mr. Joseph Russell, M.P., presented the prizes in a very able and witty manner, calling attention particularly to the fact that, tho the A. Y. C. was the youngest organization of its kind in Toronto, yet it was rapidly forging to the front, and that in the past season it had won the city champlonship in the sixteen-foot class, one of the most coveted trophies in the L. S. S. A.

At 3.20 the starter fired the shot,

J. Ross Robertson's amendment, to displace the statutory declarations for juntor age limits by official birth certificates from the respirar-general's department, or from a church baptismal record, was carried. There was no opposition.

day's showing, the Tigers will win easily. Dr. Billy Hendry, who refereed the game, did not think that Varsity had extended themselves, while Harry Griffiths, coach of the students, would say nothing, rie remarked, however, that, while the Hamilton bunch had come down to look over his team, they had seen little. In fact, the way he put it was "They uidn't see a thing: not a thing."

"12zy" Isbister, captain of the Tigers, congratulated Captain Hugh Gall of the students and Gall said thanks. That is all these gentlemen would say.

Here was the way it looked. T.A.A.C. went on to the field suffering from a severe case of stage fright. From this they did not recover until half time and then it was all too late. Gall's kicking was something, the like of which they had not been called upon to meet, except in Dundas and Saturday it was supported by good outside wings. T.A.A.C. have a wing line that will extend any team playing straight football, but their back division is uncertain and unreliable. What Varsity would have done or can do when they try out every trick in the box as they may reasonably be expected to do next Saturday, is still a matter of conjecture.

Varsity are fast, they can tackle, their hands and cover any fumbles that they make with neatness and dispatch. Taking their showing of Saturday and allowing for what they kept under the blankets, they should clean up with a comfortable margin after a well fought game at Hamilton a week hence.

Saturday's game was an ideal one for the spectator. The appointments were comfortable and an uninterrupted view of the field was to be had at all times. Inspector Charlton of No. 5 division with Sergeants MacFarlane and Irvine was on the Job with 40 conetables and the immense crowd was handled without a hitch.

WHO'LL BE CHAMPIONS?

Kicking Game From Start—Result is Looked on as Victory for Blue.

New Haven, Nov. 20.—For more than an hour yesterday afterwoon the blue of Yale and the crimson of Harvard were carried back and forth over the white-lined turf on Yale field, and when the final whistle sounded the end of the game to soore, but the ball sy on Harvard's 23-yard line. Neither side had been sible to soore, but the result was looked upon by wearers of the bill as as Yale victory.

It was a kicking game from the start. Howe, for Yale, and Felton, Wiggles-worth and Corbett for Harvard, punted whenever there seemed to be the slightest darger. Daly had a try at a field goal from Harvard's 24-yard line just before the day, and declared that they will be an easy meal for the Tigers, while other observed that Varsity were not really extending themselves, and declared that when they meet the yellow and black next week they will open up a box of trickys which will leave nothing of the Mountaineers but a few stray stripes upon the sward.

Chief Coach Sep. DuMoulin of the Tiger camp remarked; "T don't know. I don't know. Varsity is playing under cover to day," Ex-Coach and Ex-Captain Ballard of the Hamilton outfit, who is also an ex-Varsity player, remarked that football prophecy is bad business.
