CARRIED THE WAR TO SUCCESSFUL END SAYS KING

His Majesty, in Proroguing Parliament, Speaks of Work of Forces.

PRaises DOMINIONS Entry of United States Inspires Fresh Confidence in Ultimate Victory.

London, Feb. 6.—Parliament was prorogued today and will reassemble on February 13.

On the other hand, Russia, distracted by internal dissensions, has not been able to persevere.

The negotiations opened by her with the enemy have, however, served but to prove that the ambition which provoked this unhappy war is unabated.

In the theatres of the war my naval and military forces have displayed throughout the year noble courage, high constancy and fixed determination, which has won for them the admiration of my people.

In France the enemy has been repeatedly and successfully thrown back. I await with assurance the further progress of an imperial war.

In Palestine and Mesopotamia, the most revered and famous cities of the Orient have been wrested from the Turk, while in Africa the enemy has lost the last remnant of his colonial possessions.

During the year representatives of my dominions and of the Indian Empire were summoned for the first time to sessions of an imperial war cabinet.

After thinking the matter of common sense for the liberality of its provisions for the heavy expenditure of the war and announcing his sanction of the representation of the people, the King expressed the hope that this bill would ensure to a much larger number of his subjects an effective voice in the government of the country.

Continue Reconstruction. "I will," he continued, "enable the nation, the unity of which has been so marked a characteristic of the war, to continue in the not less arduous work of reconstruction in the times of peace."

LORD DERBY TO RESIGN? Yorkshire Post Says Successor Will Prove Great Surprise to Public.

London, Feb. 6.—The resignation of the Earl of Derby as secretary of state for war in the British cabinet, is imminent, says The Yorkshire Post today.

The Geddes brothers referred to by The Yorkshire Post are Sir Eric Campbell Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, and Sir Auckland C. Geddes, minister of national service.

RAJICAL PROPOSALS REGARDING MEDICAL POLICY OF ONTARIO

Every Branch of Activity Touched Upon in Report of Mr. Justice Hodgins.

REGISTRY FOR NURSES Osteopaths, Recognized, But Chiropractors Not Looked Upon With Favor.

In his report presented to the legislature yesterday, Mr. Justice Hodgins proposes legislation that will, in the event that it is made law, mean a new policy for Ontario in regard to medical questions.

According to the recommendations, osteopaths, chiropractors and others who treat without drugs, who were practicing in Ontario prior to June 30, 1918, are allowed six months without being subject to prosecution.

After July 1 no person would be permitted to practice medicine without a license from the college of physicians and surgeons except osteopaths holding a certificate from one of the colleges recognized by the American Osteopathic Association.

The report calls for the setting up of a provincial registry for nurses, including their qualifications, is suggested, and only those who have qualified in a public hospital would be known as a graduate or trained nurse.

In regard to the education of optometrists, the report proposes that the student be given a certificate as an optometrist, that the student be given a certificate as an optometrist, that the student be given a certificate as an optometrist.

Regarding chiropractors, the commissioner states, "I cannot bring myself to accept as part of our recognized medical profession a system which denies the need of diagnosis, refers 95 per cent. of diseases to one or the same cause and turns its back upon all modern medical and scientific methods as unworthy to be even discussed."

Heavy Penalties Provided. Heavy penalties are recommended in the cases of persons practicing religious tenets upon any person suffering from religious disease.

The successful prosecution of the war is still the end in view. I have watched with proud and grateful heart the unvarying enthusiasm which all sections of my people have responded to every demand made upon them for every demand.

The commissioner endorses the demand made by the nurses for recognition, and the need for further training facilities is urged. A new class is suggested whereby undergraduate students may take care of the sick under the supervision of a fully qualified nurse.

Dealing with the dentists, it is recommended that the Royal College of Dental Surgeons' surplus be given to the universities to provide increased facilities for training purposes.

ULEABORG TAKEN AFTER HARD BATTLE

Government Forces in Finland Defeat "Reds" and Capture Town.

REBELS ARE WEAKENING Reign of Terror is Reported From the City of Kemi.

Stockholm, Feb. 6.—Gen. Mannerheim, commanding the government forces in Finland that were organized to enforce the authority of the Finnish diet, has defeated the Finnish red guard and the Russians at Uleaborg and taken possession of the city.

Uleaborg was the chief military depot of the red guard in northern Finland and contained considerable stores of ammunition and artillery. Military observers now confidently predict that the whole of northern Finland soon will be in the hands of the government forces.

The battle of Uleaborg lasted two days and there were several hundred dead on both sides. "Reds," located on the Gulf of Bothnia, 75 miles from Uleaborg, is still quiet, but the arrival of a white guard is being momentarily expected.

TORONTO SCHOOLS NOT OPEN MONDAY Closing Not Absolutely Necessary, But Fuel Controller Suggests It.

NO SCHOOL RIGHT OUT Some Have Coal Enough, and All Have a Certain Amount.

Dr. G. J. Steele, chairman of the board of education, received a letter from C. A. Magrath, fuel controller, in answer to a letter he had written asking if the schools were to be included in the closing order.

The letter states that it is not absolutely necessary under the order to close the schools, but asks that the spirit and intention of the law be observed, and suggests that the schools be closed before June 30, 1918, can secure a certificate by passing a special examination.

No School Right Out. "Every school has a certain amount of coal; no school is right out," said Wm. Kerr, superintendent of supplies, yesterday. "Of course, some of them have only a small amount, but there is enough to get along with for a short time. We have lots of coal on order, but the trouble is getting it to the schools. It took two weeks from the time we located three cars of coal in the yards at Mimico until delivery was made to the schools in the north end."

Owing to the weather turning mild it seems to be the opinion of most of the trustees of the board of education of a number of the principals that it would not be wise to close the schools now and open them again at the end of the year, as it is harder for the children to work in the warm weather and considerable trouble would be experienced in making new arrangements for examinations.

Heavy Penalties Provided. Heavy penalties are recommended in the cases of persons practicing religious tenets upon any person suffering from religious disease.

Dealing with the dentists, it is recommended that the Royal College of Dental Surgeons' surplus be given to the universities to provide increased facilities for training purposes.

Ottawa, Feb. 6.—The food controller announced today that arrangements had been made with the authorities at Washington under which the United States War Trade Board has appointed to Canada sufficient corn to meet the monthly requirements of the country.

TO THE DISPENSERS AND DOCKS OF YORK.

TH' Lan'mark: All I gotta say, mister, is that printin' likker ad ain't no worse than puttin' in special dispatches on th' financial page to knock th' paper's opinions or th' editor's page. That's what Lon Stout an' Joe Akkeram's doin' every day.

WEE HOK: You surprise me, John, by your attitude. Two wrongs don't make a right.

JOHN: An' two quack med'cin doctors don't cure a snake bite by wearin' long hair an' tellin' th' peepul that they got th' receipt from an ole Injin squaw out to th' Credit resservashun.

WEE HOK: Is Mister Big Eyes an Indian doctor, John?

JOHN: He's worse'n any ov' em. I got to take his prep, an' th'ir orful to swallow. But that ain't all. He kin throw distan' treatmen' into me, an' it comes in any crack in th' orfias or house; an' as soon as it gets yuh yuh feel like chills an' agur. That's how it gets me; but it aekts differ' with our wile man. As soon's th' distan' treatmen' begins to kum in th' orfias he begins to back an' holler an' cut up drefful, an' shout out for snake bite bitters. There ain't a week we both don't get took at leas' twict by it.

WEE HOK: I've had to take it, but isn't printin' liquor ads a kind of dispensin' med'cin?

JOHN: Nuh! Jus' helpin' th' ole settlers to head off th' cole famine, real snake bites an' 'fros' bites. Any dispensin' I'd like to do would be with Wes Role an' Joe Akkeram.

TUSCANIA IS TORPEDOED AND SINKS OFF IRELAND

Of 2189 United States Soldiers on Board 1912 Survivors Have Been Accounted for—Transport Was Convoyed by British Warships and Manned by British Crew.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Cunard liner Tuscania, carrying 2179 American soldiers, has been torpedoed and sunk off the Irish coast, and at a late hour to night 1912 officers and men had been accounted for in a despatch to the state department from London.

News of the first great disaster in the war to America's armed forces came in a brief despatch to the war department.

It did not mention the possibility of further survivors, but hope was built here upon the fact that all of those rescued were landed at two widely separated Irish ports, and indications that relief vessels were at hand quickly.

The war department announced that because of the fact that there was no distinctive unit it would be impossible to say definitely who was on the steamer until complete reports had been received from the other side.

The report states that during last December several units of Canadian railway troops actually served in the front line for a period of 38 hours when the train on which they were returning to camp was cut off by advanced parties of the enemy, is revealed by a report issued from the light railway lines, which were built immediately subsequent to the Cambrai offensive.

TEN LARGE SHIPS SUNK BY U-BOATS

British Shipping Losses Remain Approximately Unchanged in Week.

London, Feb. 6.—The admiralty reports 15 British merchantmen sunk by mine or submarine in the past week. Of these ten were 1600 tons or over and five under 1600 tons.

ROMA, Feb. 6.—The Italian shipping losses by mine or submarine in the week ending Feb. 2 were very light, only one steamer under 1600 tons being sunk.

TREASURY TAKES SURPLUS REVENUE

All U. S. Railway Earnings Above Standard Returns, Based on Last 3 Years.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Consideration of the administration railroad bill was completed today by the house interstate commerce committee with agreement on all amendments.

Another amendment approved by the house committee provides that until otherwise ordered by the president the carriers as before the government took control, but that any net revenue above the standard return based on the three-year period ending June 30, 1917, must be paid into the federal treasury, and placed in the $500,000,000 revolving fund provided for in both committee drafts of the bill.

BRITISH FLEET SHELLS OSTEND, DAMAGING MARINE YARDS

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 6.—British naval forces have bombarded Ostend, according to a despatch from the frontier. The marine yards were severely damaged.
