FIVE HITS ONLY IN FIXTURE AT BOSTON

Thormahlen Outlucked by Red Sox—Athletics and Indians Win.

At Boston (American)—Pitcher Thormahlen, of New York, held Boston hitless until the ninth inning yesterday, when Boston scored the only run of the game on Whiteman's long sacrifice fly to left, which Bodie dropped. Bush was hit safely three times, twice by Bodie. Pecknough, Strunk and Whiteman contributed brilliant plays. The score: R.H.E. Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1 2 0 Batteries—Thormahlen and Hannah; Bush and Agnew.

At Washington—Philadelphia made it two straight victories over Washington by taking yesterday's game, 5 to 0. Myers held the locals helpless, while the visitors bunched hits off Dumont in three innings. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia 0 0 2 0 0 1 0-5 3 0 Batteries—Myers and McAvoy; Dumont and Almsmith.

At Cleveland—The Indians hunched their hits off Gallia and defeated St. Louis 8 to 2. The locals made their long hit count for runs, most of them coming with men on the bases. Coumbe, pitching his first game of the season, was scored upon but one inning, the fourth, when Rieger walked and scored ahead of Godwin when the latter hit for a home run to left. The score: R.H.E. Cleveland 8 0 0 2 0 0 0-8 11 0 Batteries—Gallia and Nunamaker; Coumbe and O'Neill.

At Chicago—Chicago-Detroit, rain.

FORMER LEAFS FIGURE IN TUESDAY'S DOINGS

Blackburne Wins for Reds and Whiteman Helps the Boston Red Sox.

Another day has passed and the New York Giants are still undefeated. McGraw's men ended their first home stay yesterday by downing the Boston Braves in handy fashion. New Yorkers treated two Boston pitchers harshly, while siltm Sallee was holding the Braves in check. Larry Doyle, a pitcher, was out after the game with the aches. The keystone sacker rapped out a double and a pair of singles. This little lot accounted for three runs, and Larry scored another himself. Heine Zim, he of the Marathons, was not a bit bashful with the club. The defeated sprinter came across with a triple with every corner occupied. The Giants won 3 to 0. Our old friend, Lena Blackburne, had a large say in the Cincinnati victory over Mitchell's Cubs. Tyler and Bressler had a great pitching duel, and Lena was responsible for ending the tilt in the seventh. He handed out a double and rode home on Allen's single. One run was the margin that separated the teams at the finish.

Pat Moran trotted out a recruit pitcher against the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday, and the youngster got away with an easy victory. His name is Hogg, and he hails from Los Angeles. Mammox, the former Pirate, was driven to cover by the Phillies early. Luderus got his second homer of the season, mixed in with a double and a single.

Rain stopped Chicago and Detroit from playing yesterday, and Eddie Collins could not make his major league record for playing consecutive games. He will try today.

Ed Barrow's Boston Bulldogs started right in on another winning streak by taking the Yankees into camp yesterday. It was a tidy argument, and proved a best pitching duel of the season. Bodie got two hits and New York three. George Whiteman, who galloped in left field at the island last season, was responsible for the only run of the game. Thormahlen held the Red Sox until the ninth. A single put a man on base, and then George lifted a long sacrifice fly to Ping Bodie. Bodie dropped it, but the run was over. Only three hits were registered off Bush, and Bodie got two of them. Whiteman pulled off a couple of difficult catches for the fans.

Myers was in good form for the Athletics yesterday, and Washington took his whitewashing. Philadelphia bunched hits off Dumont in three sessions. Coumbe, twirling his first game, was superb. He handled the Browns nicely, and Cleveland had no trouble in winning.

New York Tribune: The members of the National Commission, jointly and severally, have spilled many a boot over the festive fields of organized baseball's legal league. It remained for them, however, in the recent finding handed down in the Lajoie case, to try to insult the intelligence of close followers of baseball's politics.

Lajoie's bonafide sale by the Toronto club of the old International League to the Brooklyn club of the National League, prior to the disbandment of the Barrow circuit, is set aside on the ground that Jim McCaffery gave Lajoie a bonus of $100,000. In justification of the stand are cited at length certain clauses in player contracts forbidding side agreements not stipulated and specified in black and white.
