France. (Cheers). Must there not have been something in the minds and hearts of these men from the confines of the Pacific to induce them to spring to arms and come to us in courage the equal of anything known hitherto in history? Do you not realize the solidarity which is being created and that it is folly to reproach us with with having introduced them into the council of the levere of resistance.

Criticizes German Treaty.

Pierre Renaudel, leader of the majority Socialists, criticized the treaty with Germany. He declared he was unwilling to see economic strife followwar by arms and said reconciliation with her enemies was necessary to rejuvenate France's national life. It was impossible for the league of nations to operate on economic grounds, he asserted, if the 300,000,000 Germans, Austrians and Russians were not included in the organization.

M. Renaudel voiced an appeal to the TERMS FOR BULGARIA of Mission to Paris Considers Conditions of Peace Treaty Very Rigorous.

Paris, Sept. 26.—The terms of peace offered Bulgaria are considered by the Bulgarian delegation as very rigorous, some of them completely inacceptable, according to a statement prepared by M. Theodoroff, head of the Bulgarian mission, prior to leaving Paris, and which has just been made public.

made public. But on the question of guarantees to minorities, M. Theodoroff declares that he accepts them all the more readily since the greater part of the provisions of that clause already are incorporated in Bulgarian legislation. He also highly approves the labor provisions of the treaty.
