CONTROL SOME PRICES

Secretary E. M. Trowern Tells World of Operations of His Association-Underselling is Prevented.

Secretary E. M. Trowern of the Retail Merchants' Association of Toronto told The World vesterday that his assodid control the prices o nsome rticles. He however qualified it by stating that it was not done on staple

"If an article is turned out from a actory to sell at 15 cents," said Mr Trowern, "we do all we can to preven the cutting of that price. First we go to the manufacturer and ask him bring his pressure to bear to prevent it. If he fails we leave it optiona with him whether he will sell the article to the man cutting the prices or to our merchants.
