

PSYCHINE

(Pronounced 'SI-KEEN')

The Greatest of all Tonic

ON THE STREET CARS

You have noticed the wonderful power of electricity in propelling our heavy street cars and how easily the motor can control this great power!

We have a wonderful power in our bodies but it must be kept under proper control.

A small neglected break on our part will lead to a serious accident or breakdown.

Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats seem at first very unimportant, but they rapidly develop into La Grippe, Hemorrhages, Congestion of the Lungs, Pleurisy, Pleuritis, Consumption, Chills and Fevers, Bronchitis.

PSYCHINE is a safe cure either in the early or latter stages of any of these diseases.

Keep a bottle beside you this winter and protect yourself and your family.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Clyde Fitch's comedy, "Her Grand Match," with the stunning and talented Maxine Elliott, will be seen for the first time in this city at the Princess Monday night next. Miss Elliott's engagement is for the first half of the week, with a matinee on Wednesday. It has been many years since this regal beauty has appeared here. Subsequent to several tours, as a joint star with her husband, N. C. Goodwin, Miss Elliott for the past three seasons has appeared as a star. Her tours have included, as a general thing, the principal cities only. She is to return to London at the conclusion of her present tour. Mr. Fitch has written out a story on the theme of a morganatic marriage at once unique, powerful and absorbingly interesting, and at the same time has given no cause for umbrage. The play was the comedy hit of the Criterion Theatre, Miss Elliott, the stately, the graceful, the entrancingly beautiful, has in "Joe" Sheldon, an American girl abroad, the best modern role she has ever played, and Charles Dillingham has surrounded her with a strong, evenly-balanced company, which includes Charles Cherry, Herbert Standen, Leon Quartermaine, Felix Edwards, Cory Thomas, Madge Girdlestone, Mathilda Catterly, Nellie Thorne, and Suzanne Perry. The seat sale has been the largest of the season.

Wm. A. Brady's special production of the New England play, "Way Down East," will be the attraction at the Grand next week. The play will be given with all the elaborate and beautiful scenery and effects as used during its run of ten weeks just completed at the New York Academy of Music. The play deals with the life of a young man and woman, and unfolds a story of the pathos and humor of which are excruciatingly brought out by the author, Lottie Blair Parker. The incidents of farm life are amusingly set forth and the presence of herds of sheep, cows and horses together with the old chaises and gigs used by the New Englanders, make "Way Down East" almost unique in stage annals. One of the wonderful features is the terrific snowstorm which sets in during the third act, and into which the heroine, Anna Moore, is driven by the fate of her father. Since its original production, three seasons ago, "Way Down East" has been elaborated by Joseph R. Grismer, to whose inventive genius the fine snow effects are due. Mr. Brady has provided the superb mounting and the splendid company.

The patrons of the Star will have a show to their liking when the annual engagement at the Star Theatre, The vaudeville portion of the program contains Frank Ross, a singing comedian, who writes his own songs; Carlisle and Perry, singing and dancing; Edna and Josie Evans, better known as the "Kiddie"; the Harmony Quartet, who sing the songs of the famous Fitzgerald; the European lightning change artist, who portrays an entire troupe of acrobats in a single act; the play and making his changes with lightning rapidity, and the Celtic comedienne, Lottie Blair Parker, who, in her act, entitled "The Wrong Countess," and the closing burlesque, "The Quarrelsome Neighbors."

Among the special features with "The Volunteer Organist," the attraction at the Majestic next week, are the singing of popular favorites like "The Holy City," with special scenic effects, by Master William Nelson, a boy soprano, and the introduction of two hundred St. Bernard dogs in a life-saving act. Four distinct, massive sets of scenery are carried by the company, together

Marie Hall, who has arrived in Toronto for her farewell and return engagement this evening at the Massey Hall, this evening will present for the first time the famous Paganini Concerto in D major, which it may be remembered was the first number on Kubelik's program when he made his first appearance here four years ago. Winiawski's Grande Fantasia, "Faust," will be another work of brilliant character, which will demonstrate wonderful bowing strength and his beautiful harmonic. The other selections are of a high order of excellence, but are extremely brief. There will be a number of rush seats on sale at 50 cents.

Watkin Mills, the famous English bass, is returning from his extended tour of Australia and New Zealand. He has had the first great vocal quartet from London, England, to tour the world. This comprises Miss Gertrude Lonsdale, soprano; Miss Gertrude Lonsdale, contralto; Harold Wilde, tenor; and Watkin Mills, bass, and Edmond Parlovitz, pianist. Last week in Winnipeg, they were the guests of Sir Daniel and Lady McMillan. Only one concert can be given in Toronto, Saturday evening, Jan. 20, in the Association Hall, Yonge and Adelaide streets.

The New York Symphony Orchestra, with Walter Damrosch as conductor, and over seventy-five in number, will join with the National Chorus in two grand concerts in Massey Hall on Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 22 and 23. The subscribers list closes to-day at the hall.

Balmer's Kaffir Boy Choir will be heard in an entirely new program on Tuesday evening, Jan. 23, as the third event in the Massey Hall popular course, at Association Hall. Those who have subscribed for course tickets can exchange them for reserved seats at Massey Hall on either Saturday or Friday next. The plan for the public will be heard on Saturday morning, also at the Massey Hall box office.

To Ben Greer's mind, the play is indeed the thing, and he has all his life fought the starring system, tooth and nail. Individuality is sunk for the sake of the ensemble work, and the result is that a Ben Greer performance of Shakespeare is a positive delight, for every part is taken by a talented actor, every part is given the value that Shakespeare intended, and the immortal work is not cut and sliced to fit the requirements of some manager-made star who is supported by a company of second-rate actors. The repertoire for the week of Feb. 5 is as follows: Monday evening, "Macbeth"; Tuesday evening, "Richard III. About Nothing"; Wednesday afternoon, "Julius Caesar"; Wednesday evening, "Macbeth"; Thursday evening, "The Merchant of Venice"; Saturday afternoon, "Macbeth"; Saturday evening, "Julius Caesar."

Harry Field's piano recital on Jan. 22 at Association Hall promises to be most interesting, as he has gained a great reputation, the continent for his Liszt and Rubinstein playing. Mr. Field's program will be entirely of these two composers.

THAT CONFERENCE.

Italy Stands by France—Germany for Fair Play.

Paris, Jan. 12.—The Marquis Visconti Venosta, head of the Italian delegation to the Moroccan conference at Algiers, arrived here from Rome last night.

The Echo de Paris this morning says that the Italian statement authorized the following statement:

"The good wishes of the whole of Italy accompany me to Algiers. As for myself, I shall be faithful to my mandate as the friend of France and of peace."

New York, Jan. 12.—A Berlin dispatch to the Herald, dated Saturday, says: "Prince Bulow left here for Rome this evening. He authorized the following communication to the press: "Neither his majesty the kaiser nor anyone else in Germany dreams of bringing the slightest pressure upon France at the expense of French national dignity at the conference where they should be neither conquerors nor conquered. "Germany stands for equality of opportunity in the trade of Morocco, the open door for all nations alike; and if this principle be accepted by others, I expect the conference will have a successful outcome. "Germany's advantages which are not to be shared by all alike."

DANGER OF IMMIGRATION.

Associated Charities Make Protest Against Importing Offspring.

A letter has been sent to Mayor Coatsworth to the minister of the interior, and to the minister of agriculture by the executive committee of the Associated Charities of Toronto, calling attention to "what appears to be a growing danger of excessive or undesirable immigration."

"The secretary of the association already reports a considerable number of Toronto of immigrants who during the season have been employed upon the farm. The Salvation Army is preparing for the transmission from England of three hundred and fifty children, who do not seem to be selected with care, but of whom the rural population being reduced, a large proportion must necessarily be taken from the cities. "Baron Rothschild is sending out 250 families, and a considerable number of London. An invitation has been extended to Russian and Polish refugees to make Canada their home. The habits and callings of these people are almost entirely urban, so that there would be a great loss to the rural population if even objectionable means of subsistence."

"Canada gladly offers a home to suitable immigrants, but by offering a home to a mass of those who are unfit, the immigrant, as well as to the country, is a danger to the country. "The letter is signed by Goldwin Smith, H. Francis Perry, D.D., Frank J. Walsh, J. P. Maclellan, J. L. Johnston, M.D., Robt. Hall, E. J. Hearn, Edward A. Weicht, L. Minehan, D. Miller.

OKU'S TRIUMPHAL ENTRY.

Tokio, Jan. 12.—Gen. Oku, who commanded the left army during the war with Russia, made a triumphal entry into the capital today. The general rode the Russian-made in the imperial carriage to the palace. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested by the people, who lined the route.

A Visit to Guadalajara. Guadalajara, the second city of Mexico, lying in the valley of the Lerma, is a point of special interest to the visitor from the north. On the great Mexican plateau, Guadalajara, at a sea level, is found this city of winter sunbeams. Viewing the beautiful city, bathed in the golden glow of the noon sun, with the adobe and pinnacles of her many churches glistening with reflected beauty, one feels that this indeed the "Florence of Mexico." The architecture, the climate and physique of her people are peculiar to herself, to be appreciated Guadalajara must be seen. A priceless treasure—Muriillo's "Assumption" is found in the cathedral, while the governor's palace and the Degollado Theatre are magnificent specimens of Mexican architecture. Guadalajara is an important commercial centre, bright and gay, and is one of the many cities visited by the Outback House-party Tour in their journeying through the south. Leaving Toronto on Feb. 1 in a luxuriously appointed private train, the party proceeds southward, visiting Cuba and many points in the Southern States, in addition to Mexico. A perfect trip, under expert management. As accommodation is strictly limited, and space for particulars and literature to E. M. Cuthbert, 25 Malland-street, Toronto, or C. B. Foster, D.E.A., C.F.R., Toronto.

Lecture Under Prominent Auspices. A lecture to be given by Rev. Father Harry D.D., on Thursday, 18th inst., in Association Hall, promises to be in every way a notable event. Many prominent gentlemen have accepted invitations to support the reverend father on the platform. The subject of the lecture is "Daniel O'Connell," which is always of absorbing interest, and the supporting program arranged for the highest order of merit. Tickets are now on sale at John McKenna's, Yonge-street, W. E. Blake's, Church-street, and J. J. McLaughlin's, West Queen-street.

Schooner Capsized. Norfolk, Va., Jan. 12.—The schooner Samuel L. Russell of Norfolk has capsized in lower Chesapeake Bay. Her crew of five men are missing, and are believed to have been drowned.
