A VERY SAD CASE.

French-Canadian in New York Would Not Eat Food, Fearing to Deprive Mts Wife.

New oYrk, Dec. 11 .- Mrs. Theophile LeBlanc, the wife of the man who was taken to the Insane Pavilion at Bellevue Hospital is in a piteous condition in her room at 318 East 23rd-street. The phile LeBlanc is the Canadan archivet who, being out of steady employment for six years, refused to eat of the scarce bread in his home in order that his wafe might live. So emaciated is Mrs. LeBlanc, and so strong is the strain put upon her nervous system by the ill-luck of her husband, and his removal to Bellevue, that it is feared that she may break down completely. In spite of her lil-health, she says if she could only get some kind of work she would most gladly do it. An elegant coupe was stopped this morning at the door to No. 318 East 33rd-street. A young ladly stepped out, rain up the stairs, and, after pressing the hand of the unfortunate woman, left a ten dollar bill in her palm. She refused to give her name. A short time later a gentleman, who said he was a French-Canadian himself, and the house and left a dollar hill. Mrs. LeBlanc has thus been enabled to day an examination of the husband. Dr. Wildman says he is no longer violent and seems to be in a stupor. His stomach now retains a little egg-nos. The man is physically a little stronger, but it is impossible to tell to-day whether he will ever regain complete pressession of his mind. Nothing more can be done for him, except keeping him quiet and administering milk and a little liquor.

and the Spaniards get out of Cuba. Continuing, he said: I believe it to be the duty of the United States to use the great power attaching to the nation to declare and to maintain, as a prerogative of right, belonging generally to republicanism, and specifically to the republic, that no charnel house of ruin shall be continued in the West Indian waters, whose waves break at our very front gate, any lorger than the time it shall require to break it up. And if the duty of supplessing this damning blot and erasing it foreve from sight shall fall alone upon the United States, so be it. We shall not claim Cuba as a reward for saving her from the slaughter, but we will not see that fair island turned again to the mercies of wild beasts and vultures of war whose only stimulus is gain. Free Cuba is the reward, and what a glorious reward that will be!

The St. Denis Hotel.

It is a good deal to say of any hotel in New York City, where the standard is maintained to the highest degree of excellence, that it is the pleasantest and most delightful house in the city, but that is what is claimed for the St. Denis Hotel, corner Broadway and Eleventh-street.

Mr. Taylor, the proprietor, has been in control of it for at least twenty-five years, possibly longer. During his administration it has been necessary to constantly increase its capacity, and it is now, with the new and magnificent addition on Eleventh-street, one of the most complete houses, as well as being one of the best.

One great advantage of the St. Denis is that it is absolutely free from every objectionable leature, noisy, boisterous, or otherwise. Undesirable patrons are neither desired nor tolerated. In an consequence, the St. Denis is a most desirable house for ladies traveling alone, where they are sure of the utmost protection and quiet. Another reason why it is so popular with ladies is that its location is right in the heart of the shopping district. is that its location is right in the heart of the shopping district.

Although the St. Denis is unsurpassed by any other hotel in New York City in the character of its accommodations, its unequalled cuisine, service, etc., its charges are not as high as those of the hotels further up town. The St. Denis is the favorite hotel for Canadians.
