After Grimsby Village Council.

J. W. Van Dyke of Grimsby has brought suit against the village council, to compel it to take over the water works system operated by him, and $2000 damages for neglecting to do so. In June, 1898, the villagers voted in favor of a bylaw to purchase the system from the plaintiff, and the necessary bylaw was passed. So far, however, the council has failed to carry out the terms of the bylaw, hence the suit.
