FROM AN OPPOSITION POINT OF VIEW.

GENERAL BULLER BELIEVED TO HAVE PASSED THE BOERS

And Is Now Several Miles Behind Them, Within Fourteen Miles of General White's Outpost at Ladysmith.

Boer Commandeers at Springfield Have Been Obviously Dislodged and Have Retired Across the River - Important Operations Are Said to Be in Progress and British May Soon Strike Boer Entrenchments-Lord Ava Dead-Casualties at Ladysmith-General War Topics.

General Buller has evidently started in to make his second attempt to relieve Ladysmith. He wired the War Office from Springfield at 9 p.m. Friday: "I occupied the south bank of the Tugela River at Potgieter's Drift this morning and seized the point. The river is in flood. The enemy is strongly entrenched at about four or a half miles to the north." This is taken to mean that General Buller is now between the Boers at Colenso and Ladysmith.

The British losses at Ladysmith on Saturday, Jan. 6, when the Boers were repulsed, after desperate fighting all day, according to the War Office, were 27 officers killed and 27 wounded. Among the British rank and file 135 were killed and 242 wounded. Among the officers who met death was Lieut.-Col. William Henry Dick Cunningham, V. C., commander of the Second Battalion of the Gordon Highlanders since 1897.

It is reported in London that General Buller submitted his plans of campaign to General Lord Roberts on the field marshal's arrival at Cape Town, and that Lord Roberts sanctioned them.

General Hector Macdonald, it is reported, will succeed General Lord Methuen in command of the British forces at Modder River.

The Earl of Ava, eldest son of the Marquis of Dufferin, formerly Governor-General of Canada, has died from his wounds at Ladysmith. This news is official.

London, Jan. 12 (Special).-General Buller's 28 words announcing his forward movement of Thursday, is interpreted as meaning that he has passed around the western end of the Boer lines at Colenso, and is now several miles behind them and within 14 miles of General White's outpost at Ladysmith. The Boers a few days ago had forces with guns at Springfield, where General Buller dates his despatch. These commandos have been obviously dislodged, either by fighting or by manoeuvres, the Boers retiring across the Tugela as General Buller advanced.

Important Move in Progress. From General Buller's despatch, coupled with the fact that unofficial intelligence from the seat of war has virtually ceased since Monday, the deduction is drawn that important operations are in progress, as he cannot move far without going against the Boer entrenchments.

Disease Worse Than War. The death list from enteric fever, and dysentery at Ladysmith, averaging from eight to ten daily, is considered more serious than the 230 casualties of Saturday's fight, as it indicates the frightfully insanitary condition of the beleaguered town. A letter from Ladysmith, dated Dec. 7, says that even then 90 out of 540 men in the battalion of which the writer was a member were sick with dysentery or enteric fever, and, according to a despatch to The Daily Chronicle, dated Jan. 8, the patients and attendants in Tombl Camp, where the hospital is, then numbered 2800 men.

Boer Strength 100,000 Men. An apparently well-informed correspondent of The Morning Post says: "The Boer strength, originally 85,000 men, is now heavily augmented by Cape Colonists, and the enemy's fighting force may be estimated fairly at 100,000 men and 500 guns. The Boers are not compelled to fight as their communications. Their grass is good, the crops are growing, vegetables, cattle and sheep are plentiful, and game is abundant.

Scenes of Patriotism. Remarkable scenes of patriotism were witnessed in London last evening, after a short service held for the volunteers in St. Paul's Cathedral. The vast audience was slow to disperse. Ladies stood up on the chairs, beckoning and calling to brothers, sons and friends in the ranks, the latter signalling back. A scene of great animation ensued. The organist introduced a few bars of the National Anthem in concluding the voluntary. The effect of this was magical. First the volunteers and then the congregation took up the strain, and the vast cathedral was filled with enthusiastic song.

Demonstrations Renewed. These demonstrations were renewed by immense crowds outside St. Paul's Church Yard and Lodgegate Hill were black with people, and it was impossible for the volunteers to march. Individual members were pulled out of the ranks by their friends and admirers, who raised them on their shoulders and thus carried them down the steps to the river. Those who escaped bolting proceeded slowly, surrounded by clinging women.

Crowds of Cheering People. Afterward, the various theatres, where the men were entertained, and yet later, returning to barracks, these scenes were renewed, and the streets were filled until midnight with cheering people.

Only British Subjects. Mr. Reginald Wynne, chief of the Yeomanry recruiting office, says he has refused numerous offers of service made by Americans. Only British subjects are allowed to join. Consequently, he says, the report that several American rough riders had enlisted in the Yeomanry is incorrect. Some Britishers, however, who are alleged to have seen service in the American army in Cuba have been accepted.

Young Duke Goes. The Duke of Marlborough has been accepted by the War Office for service in the Yeomanry.

Ceylon Sends Men. Mr. Chamberlain has issued telegram from Ceylon, showing that the Legislative Council of the colony has voted to send 123 mounted armed men to South Africa.

A MESSAGE FROM GEN. BULLER. British Now Occupy the South Bank of the Tugela River-The Enemy Entrenched. London, Jan. 12.-The War Office received this morning the following despatch from General Buller, dated Springfield, Jan. 11, at 9:20 in the evening: "I occupied the south bank of the Tugela River at Potgieter's Drift, this morning, and seized the point. The river is in flood. The enemy is strongly entrenched about four and a half miles to the north."

THE EARL OF AVA IS DEAD. The eldest son of the Marquis of Dufferin Dies From Wounds at Ladysmith. London, Jan. 12.-It is reported this evening that the Earl of Ava has died of his wounds.

His Death Confirmed. London, Jan. 12.-The report of the death of the Earl of Ava is officially confirmed.

The Earl of Ava is no stranger to Canada, having visited this country several times since his father's term as Governor-General of Canada. He attended the Board of Trade banquet in Toronto six years ago, and was a visitor in this city two years ago. He was a great favorite in society circles, both in Toronto and Ottawa.

How the Earl Died. London, Jan. 12.-The Earl died without recovering consciousness. He went out as a war correspondent, although latterly he had been on Sir George White's staff. As the Earl never married, Lord Lennox

W. W. OGILVIE PASSES AWAY

The Great Manitoba Miller Dies Suddenly From Heart Failure at His Home.

PIONEER BUYER OF MANITOBA. He Was the First to Put Into Operation the Roller Milling Process in Canada.

Montreal, Jan. 12 (Special).-It has been a long time since the business community received such a shock as when it was flashed about town that W. W. Ogilvie, the great miller, had just expired. It was all so terribly sudden that few could believe it at first, that so terrible a loss had in reality come to the city in which he lived so long. However, the news was true. Mr. Ogilvie came down to business as usual, attended to his correspondence and reached the Bank of Montreal to attend the regular directors' meeting at 11 o'clock.

Taken Suddenly Ill. He remained in the bank until noon, and then taking a slight rest for his home. On the way up Mr. Ogilvie became suddenly ill and was driven to Dr. Gordon's on Peel-street. The medical man saw the case was serious, and in a little while accompanied Mr. Ogilvie to his residence, Rosemount. The millionaire walked into his house at dusk and then went upstairs to his room, where he expired 5 minutes after. Heart failure was the cause of his awfully sudden death.

Mr. Ogilvie's Career. William Watson Ogilvie was born at Cole St. Michael, Montreal, Feb. 14, 1855. He was educated at the Montreal High school. In 1880 he entered into partnership with his brother, Alexander and John, as grain merchants and proprietors of the Glenora flour mills on the Leitchin Canal. Subsequently they built mills at Goderich, Seaford, and Winnipeg, and more recently a mill on the Royal Mills. After the retirement of his elder brother, Alexander, in 1878, and the death of his other brother, John, in 1888, the entire business fell into Mr. W. W. Ogilvie's hands.

The Pioneer Wheat Buyer. Mr. Ogilvie was the pioneer wheat buyer in Manitoba. He possessed a thorough knowledge of wheat, wheat lands and the production of flour. He was the first to put into operation in Canada the roller milling process, as well as many other of the latest methods of invention in flour making. Mr. Ogilvie was on the directorate of the old Dominion Board of Trade, with the Hon. John Young, Hon. Thomas White and others; had served both on the Council and on the Board of Arbitration of the Montreal Board of Trade, and was president of that body in 1900; had been a higher commissioner and was president of the Canadian Exchange for two terms. Mr. Ogilvie had also been president of St. Andrew's Society. At the time of his death he was a director of the Bank of Montreal. He was a millionaire.

JAPAN MAY FIGHT RUSSIA

Japanese Newspapers Say Troops are Being Moved to Points of Vantage.

WAR PREDICTED AT EARLY DATE. Government Orders 100,000 Winter Uniforms From a British Firm as Well as Supplies.

Vancouver, B.C., Jan. 12.-Advises by the steamship Empress of Japan, which arrived in Vancouver to-day, say that many of the Japanese papers are predicting war between Japan and Russia at an early date. All the papers chronicle the rapid movement of Japanese troops to points of vantage.

George R. Gregg, ex-Mayor of Winnipeg, who arrived from Yokohama by yesterday's steamer, says the prospect of war between Japan and Russia has been in no respect diminished through the recent overtures of the St. Petersburg Government. Shortly before he left Japan the Government had placed an order for 100,000 winter uniforms with a British firm, while coincidentally the Japanese press announced the purchase of large supplies of campaign foods by the Army Commissary Department. Hundreds of horses are being mustered at Hiroshama and drilled for cavalry service.

Another significant report is given by a Tokio correspondent. He says the British Government recently applied to the Nippon Yusen Kaisha to charter some of their steamers equipped for the field. The application was refused, the Japanese Government declining permission on the ground that it might need the steamers. It is easily understood that the situation is not improved by the Japanese active and heavy indomitable policy and the assurance given by no other than forty Japanese towns that, if desired, they will supply Great Britain with complete and experienced regiments for service in the Transvaal.

"GODSPEED" SPOKEN TO TORONTO'S BOYS

The City's Representatives Gave Farewell Gifts to Second Contingent.

ENTHUSIASM NOT LOUD,

But the Speeches Were Patriotic and the Large Crowd Was Visibly Moved.

EACH GETS A MATCH BOX AND $5

Officers' Presents Are a Revolver, a Field Glass and $25 - An Impressive Occasion.

The farewell and the city's presentation to Toronto's quota of the second Canadian contingent in the Armories last night was not by any means characterized by the wild enthusiasm and spontaneous outburst of patriotic feeling that took place upon the occasion of the departure of the contingent. The elements had a great deal to do in dampening the ardor of the vast crowd present. The large drill hall was cold and uncomfortable and, with the exception of the speeches of the Mayor and Col. Denton, there was a lack of stirring addresses. Hon. G. W. Ross was depended upon to deliver the speech of the evening, but was absent for some reason or other, and the whole proceedings lasted only about half an hour.

But while the people may not have displayed their emotions, yet deep down in their hearts there was a feeling of pride as they glanced at the hundred and fifty or so strapping great-coated men, of their own free will, enlisted in the contingent and are now about to depart and lend their assistance to the Empire in this hour of its trouble. The whole ceremony, notwithstanding the absence of any great enthusiasm, was impressive and solemn, instead of ebullient and making a great thing, the crowd took matters seriously and seemed to look on the stern side of affairs and to weigh the chances of ever seeing the boys again.

Crowd Came Early. Long before the troops arrived the officers' gallery and the others were crowded. In the centre of the floor a space was roped off and kept clear for the men. In front of it the platform was erected, and they had the advantage of hearing all the speeches. Promptly at 8 o'clock the strains from the band of the Governor-General's Body-Guards announced that the boys had arrived, and a few moments later, they marched in, amid cheers, and took up their positions.

A Rush for Robes at Dineen's. Sleighing furs now come up in immense quantities and varieties among the attractive fur displays at Dineen's. Provision had been made early in the season for a great sleighing winter. Over three thousand robes of every variety of fur and great number of exclusive styles, such as fashions in fancy effects have been waiting for the attention which followed the snow-fall yesterday. The robe sales yesterday, coupled with the weather-forecast's prediction that Toronto will have very little snow during the next month and a half than it has had in that time for many years, are helping to reduce the supply at Dineen's, and the prices will never again be as low as at present. Tonight, Dineen's remains open till 10 o'clock.
