

In conclusion, we would tender our best thanks to the many kind friends who have helped in the work.

As in the past we would still go forward, relying upon Divine aid, and would this evening anew erect our "Ebenezer," and say, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT,

YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER, 1883.

In submitting the Annual Report of the Petite Cote Sabbath School for the past year, we would first of all acknowledge God's good hand upon us in sparing us all to begin another new year in His service. During the past year several of the families represented in our School have suffered from severe sickness as well as sad bereavements. With these families we sympathize very deeply, and have not ceased in all our devotions to commend them to the God of all consolation.

The number in attendance this year has equalled
