the present active demand for butcher cattle prices were not at all strong. The average run for medium to fair butcher cattle was from $3.80 to $4; good butchers, $4.25; choice, $4.30 to $4.40; extra choice picked cattle, $4.50 to $4.60 offered in a few cases.

The export trade is very quiet, and though prices are quoted steady to firm for the right quality buyers are not contained. The export trade is very quiet, and though prices are quoted steady to firm for the right quality, buyers are not plentiful, nor are there many well-finished cattle to be had at the top figures quoted. There was a heavy run of sheep and lambs, and the lamb market is a little days. Good calves are scarce and the market is a little figure.

The Model Fall Coat

The cut shown here is an exact reproduction of our "Goodwood" Sack Coat for Fall and Winter wear. Note the features that stand out strong in this garment—the length is 32 and 33 inches, the shoulders broad, the lapels button low, and the fronts are all handworked, every button hole hand-worked, collars hand-felled. This model is perfect in every detail, and can only be had from us, as we manufacture for our own stores. What we sell we make; what we make fits. Ask to see our "Goodwood" model for FALL.
