More Returned Soldiers To Reach London.

NINE FROM THIS CITY

Gunner Munnoch Included in Those Expected Back.

Another party of returned soldiers, this time including 33 stretcher cases, will reach London at 5:30 this afternoon via Grand Trunk. It was at first expected that the men would not come stock, Miss Harris and Nelson Fisher.

FAREWELL SERMON—On Sunday evening flext, June 23rd, Rev. H. D. Whoyer of Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church, will preach his farewell sermon to his congregation, this being for his new appointment at Seager forth. through to London until Friday, but better connections than were expected were made at Toronto, and the men are now on their way to London. The usual arrangements for their reception have been made. Gunner Gordon Munnoch, whose name appears in the list, is the third brother to be invalided back. Corp. Alex. Munnoch was among the first London soldiers to be-invalided back from wounds, and Pte. John Munnoch returned some time ago with a leg off, lost in France. A fourth brother, Gunner Norman Munnoch, is now at Petawawa camp, having left Osgoode Hall to enlist.

A sister, who served overseas as a nurse, has also returned.
The Londoners in the party are:
J. Aiken, 24 Picton street.
R. Holcombe, 198 Clarence street.
J. G. Munnoch, 105 Waterloo street.
H. Pritchett, 503 Hill street.

Inspector Burgess testified that Hewitt said he just gently shoved the inspector John Monteith of Delaware corroborated the evidence of Inspector Burgess, and Mrs. Near substantiated the statements of Hewitt.

The trouble arose over a crate of chickens, which the inspector said were being smothered beneath the weight of a bundle of papers.

The discontinuance of pre-registration by Friday was found absolutely necessary in view of the fact that less than 30,000 blank cards remain at Registrar Bayly's office for use on Saturday, the day set by statute for registration.

ter Inspection of Results of City's Response to Greater Production Plea.

Ald. S. R. Manness, head of London's vacant lot garden movement, believes that London will this year raise enough potatoes to meet at least one-third of the city's requirements. It is just possible, he says, that it may reach 50 sible, he says, that it may reconper cent.

Ald. Sam is known by all to be considerable of an optimist and enthusiast on two questions, vacant lot gardens and municipal fish sales, but a tour of a portion of the vacant lot garden
areas, tends to substantiate the belief that the alderman's predictions in regard to the gardens have a more solid foundation than mere optimism or hones.
