SAYS THAT MILLERS DO NOT ADULTERATE

D. A. Campbell Defends Mill- Error in Ballot Form May Foreign Minister Arrives ing Practices Before Special Committee.

to consider the bill to prevent adulteration of bran and shorts met this morning. D. A. Campbell, Maple Leaf Milling Company, said what the millers wanted was a frank discussion by which they could show that the millers of Canada were not robbing the farmers in carrying out their business. The millingers on one "stuff" the feeds, said Mr. Campbell. The wheat they bought was all that went into the bran and shorts. Screenings taken from the wheat before it was milled was put back into feed-stuffs, the witness admitted. To Mr. Campbell's knowledge, there was no pernicious seed in the wheat which they bought, John Best said the millers, in opposing this bill, wanted to pollute the forms.

servenings taken from the wheat before it was milled was put back into feed-stuffs, the witness admitted. To him cheed-stuffs, the witness thoughted the farms with weeds. Mr. Campbell's retorted that the weeds should be eliminated on the farm, machinery should be installed to remove weed seeds, which could then be burned.

Answering Mr. Eexsmith, M. Campbell said there was nothing to stop the miliers selling screenings as such. As swering Mr. Eexsmith, M. Campbell said there was nothing to stop the miliers selling screenings as such. The witness thought farmers should be required to clean their grain.

Members of the committee replied that this was impossible. The miliers at least wanted, wheat clean when it came to them from Fort William.

Mr. Campbell's said this bill, would farmers and the form under the election. The will be required to clean their grain.

Mr. Sutherland pointed out that the witness' company had a splendid reputation, as no impurities had been found in their bran and shorts. The witness said they had always put the screenings into their bran.

C. B. Watts, secretary of the Dominion Millers' Association, presented the case of the smaller millers of Ontario and Quebec. He said the price of flour and Dy-products must increase if this with the result that errors undoubtedly have taken place in the computation of the votes in many of the polling subdivisions and polling places throughout the entire province, and it is impossible now to say what was the vote on the different questions asked under the referendum act. The information received indicates that the error was discovered too late to possibly advise all deputy returning officers.

The Government stated that they desired to have a true mandate from the electors on the different questions.

TO MEET IN OTTAL

case of the smaller millers of four and by-products must increase if this legislation were passed. He thought the whole matter should be left over and carefully considered. Mr. Sutherland called attention to the fact that the bill had been before the House all session and the millers had been given plenty of time on the bill.

Mr. Sutherland then introduced his motion that the legislation now in questions should be passed and put into effect.

Mr. Watts suggested that Canada should have the same law as the United States. This would allow the grinding of all seeds from the milling wheat, but would prevent the introduction of outside matter. The millers thought also there should be a closer definition of "adulteration" in the bill.

Mr. Sutherland's motion carried by fore, consider that the only proper action for the Government to take is to have a recount of the ballots in each and every polling place throughout the province. Yours very truly, T. L. MONAHAN, olicitor for Citizens' Liberty League higher fare bylaw was passed by the city council.

Whatever decision is given in the courts, the citizens will have a vote on the matter in January. This has been definitely placed on the lists for a vote of the people through a motion by Ald. S. R. Manness. If the people agree to higher fares their collection wil be quite legal. The claim of those attempting to quash the bylaw is that the city council had no authority to grant higher fares without a vote of the citizens. The municipal elections will be held in ten weeks from now.

WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 24—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The collapse of the industrial conference and other labor developments probably accounted for the confusion of speculative sentiments at the opening of today's stock market. Steel shares, for example, moved contrarily with some of the equipments, but the tendency for the most part was toward improvement. Miscellaneous issues were prominent at substantial gains, notably Remington Typewriter and Lead. Ralis yesterday's most stable issue, reflected confident buying, especially transcontinentals and grangers.

1:30 p.m.—The demand for ralis broadened at midday, investment issues as represented by Reading and Southern Pacific being the outstanding feature. ern Pacific being the outstanding fea-tures. Shares of minor roads, especi-ally those traversing western and southwestern territories, also were steadily absorbed at substantial ad-vances.
