AND MUSIC SIGNOR PIETRO CORALLO.

The department of tenori of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company is fur-ther augmented this season by the engagement, for the entire tour, of the organization of Signor Pietro Corallo, one of Italy rising and most sensational young artists. The present is the singer's first American tour, tho the most famous opera houses of Eu-rope and the old world have heard his superb voice.

Signor Corallo is but 27 years old but the fame he has attained during his comparatively brief career make him a most valuable acquisition to the already well fortified section of tenori of the San Carlo Company.

MAUD ALLAN'S DANCING TEACHER.

If one were to ask Maud Allan, the dancer, who instructed her in her art, she would answer with a smile. "Mother Nature," probably. In fact, this famous symphonic dancer, of whom the critic of The Birmingham Gazette wrote: "She may al most be said to have created a new art" never experienced so much as the ordinary lessons of the dancing school. Maud Allan will appear at the Alexandra Theatre on Oct. 5, 6 and 7.

"EVERYWOMAN" AT THE GRAND.

Henry W. Savage is sending here the tremendous dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," which created such a furore in New York, Boston, Chicago, and the other large American cities. It will be disclosed at the Grand Opera House pext week. There have been. Flouge best week. There have been, since the first production of this mod-ern morality play, changes in the cast from time to time, but Toronto is for-tunate in having an opportunity to witness the best all-round organiza-tion Mr. Savage has ever sponsored, it is the only company paying "Program. It is the only company paying "Everyin America.

LOEW'S THEATRE.

Miss Annie Kent will offer a new collection of exclusive proves Divise Harris and her superty bill. songs. Dixie Harris and her quarter will present a singing and dancing revue. An unusual sketch, entitled "Women," will be presented with a cast of three girls and an unusual plot. Stanley Warren and Pauline Corbett will present a dainty little collection of songs and dances, and the Flying Werntz, in a sensational aerial act. "Under Two Flags," featuring Theda Bara, and the latest release of Charlie Chaplin, in "The Pawnshop, will complete the bill.

"SELF-DEFENCE" AT STRAND.

The native Canadian war play, "Self-Defence," is proving a big draw at the Strand Theatre. And the nature of its local and patriotic appeal is proving very forceful. Moreover, the photography reflects great credit on the Canadian-made effort. But perhops the most attractive feature of this photo-drama is the number of troops shown and the care and exactitude with which the military movements are carried out.

MADISON THEATRE.

Owen Moore, in the famous stage success of two seasons, "Rolling Stones." is the headline attraction at the Madison Theatre for the remaind. or of this week. Cwen Moore is casily one of the most popular of the screen stars of today, while the play has been conceded to be the most powerful stage production of many sensons, while as a screep slory it is even better thar. its "legit" predecessor. On Monday evening Sessue Hakayawa, the Japanese actor who jumped into public favor in his last production, "The Cheat," will be seen in a new play.

THE REGENT THEATRE.

The inimitable comedian. Ralph Hers, in "The Purple Lady." is the big attraction at the Regent today. It is without exception the funniest farce comedy shown in a long while.
