Thousands of people are constantly troubled with buzzing, ringing, rumbling or hissing noises in their head and ears, are hard of hearing and fear the day when partial or total deafness may be their lot.

Such cases, even though of long standing are not hopeless as a simple home prescription used daily has shown it possible in many instances to overcome the head and ear noises in less than tentagy and to restore clear, distinct hearing in less than thirty.

At the regular meeting of the city wouncil held yesterday afternoon, Commissioner Russell reported that he had he company with Mayor Hayes and officials of the C. P. R., made an inspection of work along the harbor front on the work being done by Kane and Ring. They do not believe, however, that the work on the foundation of No. 5 shed is satisfactory, and the outside wharf at sheds 6 and 7 needs some repairs. Considerable objection was taken by the rompany's representatives to the piling at the old trestle from Union street out. This brought up considerable discussion during which Commissioner Russell.

The record for an amateur salesman The record for an amateur salesman of Liberty bonds is thought to be held by eleven-year-old John Bayer Snowden of Memphis, Tenn. It is not claimed by him, for he isn't interested in records; merely in selling the bonds. His friends, however, think that $1,010,000 worth, the total of his sales for the second loan will exceed any except those of the the total of his sales for the second loan, will exceed any except those of the big banks. A few days before the bond campaign began he was one of the unhappiest boys in Tennessee. For he was too young to be a Boy Scout, which was the height of 'his ambition just then. Then his brother, a year and a half older, announced that as a Boy Scout he was going to sell Liberty bonds.

Bayard, instead of fretting because the war had to go on without him, got permission to set up a bond selling table in the Bank of Commerce lobby. The table was covered with an American flag, and behind it Bayard sat and talked Liberty Loan to anybody who entered Liberty Loan to anybody who enter-ed the bank.
