

WEDDINGS

Phinney-Carten.

A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 5.30 p. m., in Victoria street Baptist parsonage, when Miss Bertha Carten of this city was married to Chester H. Phinney of Somerville, Mass. The bride looked charming in brown silk tricolette, with crystal bead trimmings, hat of brown with sand feather and veil, and log cabin suede shoes, also gloves and stockings to match, and carrying a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums and ferns. Rev. G. B. McDonald officiated. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Phinney entrained for Boston amid showers of confetti and good wishes. They will reside in Boston. The bride received some lovely presents of china, silver, linen, etc.

Wade-Brittain.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 4, a quiet wedding took place at 38 Prince street, West St. John, when Miss Mabel A. Britain was united in marriage to John Wade, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. McN. Townsend.

Phinney-Carten.

The wedding of Miss Bertha Carten and Chester H. Phinney was solemnized at the Victoria Street Baptist parsonage last evening at 5.30 o'clock. Rev. George A. MacDonald, pastor of the church officiating. The bride was attired in a pretty suit of brown point with hat and veil to match and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Phinney left on the Boston train for their home in Somerville, Mass. Mrs. Phinney was formerly from Waterborough, Queens county, and has recently resided in St. John. She was a valued member of the Victoria Street church and of the Philathea Bible Class.

DEATHS

Mrs. T. A. Stewart.

Many friends were shocked to learn of the death in her 73rd year of Mrs. T. A. Stewart, which took place at her home at West River, P. E. Island, on October 8. The funeral was held on the 10th and services were conducted by Rev. C. U. McNevin, assisted by Rev. W. J. McLeod, of New Glasgow, a former minister of the congregation.

Mrs. Stewart, who before her marriage was Isabelle Bailey, of St. John, belonged to one of the old Loyalist families of New Brunswick and was directly descended from William Penn. Her father, Wm. Bailey, was editor of one of the leading St. John papers. She had been in poor health for the past six months, but bore her illness with great fortitude and patience and showed at all times evidence of that strong faith and love for everybody which during life characterized all her actions. She was a woman who took her greatest pleasure in doing something for somebody else.

Mrs. Stewart leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, who is widely known, also four daughters, Miss Edith at home, Mrs. George McMillan, of Dedham, Mass., Mrs. Wm. McLean, Kensington, and Mrs. Thomas Phillips of St. John; also a nephew, William Stewart, of California, whom she brought up. Two children died before her, one dying in infancy, and Miss Bessie.

The Late Mrs. A. R. Purdy.

The funeral of Mrs. A. R. Purdy, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Upper Jemseg, was held on Monday afternoon, and the large attendance testified to the esteem in which she had been held. A short service was held at the home for the family, after which the body was taken to the Upper Jemseg Baptist church, where a public service was held. Both services were conducted by Rev. J. Crisp. Mrs. Purdy had reached the advanced age of 87 years. Her husband died about five years ago. She is survived by four daughters, Miss Nelda, at home; Mrs. N. S. Springer and Mrs. W. L. Hurder of this city, and Mrs. F. S. Barnaby of Moncton; two sons, Dykeman Purdy of this city and Onslow Purdy, at home, and 12 grandchildren.

John Stewart.

John Stewart, who has been an invalid for several years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Fawcett, 66 Harrison street, yesterday, November 4, leaving three daughters, Mrs. Fawcett, Mrs. Leonard deLond and Mrs. Roy Allen, all of this city; two sisters, Mrs. C. Daley and Mrs. George Hewson of St. John and one brother, Frederick Stewart. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon from the residence of his son-in-law, H. Fawcett, 66 Harrison street, with service at 2.30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill.

Mrs. Mary J. Granville.

The death occurred at an early hour this morning of Mary J., the wife of the late Captain J. Robert Granville, at her residence, 190 Main street. Mrs. Granville has been a resident of St. John for 58 years and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She was an active member of Main Street Baptist church for 45 years. She leaves to mourn, three children, Mrs. William Hawes, of New York City; Miss Mabel E. Granville, at home, and Mrs. William F. Roberts, 4 Douglas Avenue; two grandchildren, William F. Roberts, Jr. and Murray MacLaren Roberts, also two half brothers, James H. and Melbourne B. Rees, of Cumberland Bay, Queens Co. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Friday and will be private.

John A. Powers.

The death of John A. Powers occurred at the St. John county hospital yesterday morning after a lengthy illness. He is survived by two sons, John, of Burnsville and William of St. John, and three daughters, Mrs. Robert Flaherty, Jennie and Mabel, all of St. John. The funeral will be held from O'Neill's undertaking parlors on Thursday morning at 8.30 o'clock to St. Peter's church for high mass of requiem.

Shoulders, throats and arms of swan-like whiteness

With radiantly youthful, velvet skins they confidently meet the "First Night" test

"FIRST Night" at the opera, the theatre or the symphony. Or the season's first important ball!

Everywhere the brilliant women of Society with radiantly youthful, flawless skins.

Throats and shoulders of swan-like whiteness, cheeks of velvet sheen—how have these women managed to appear with radiance which dazzles the most appraising eye?

It's the Two Creams they use which supply the balanced care every normal skin should have and keep the complexion at its topmost reach of loveliness.

The first step in the Pond's Method is a thorough cleansing at least once a day with Pond's Cold Cream and always after any exposure. Smooth the cream lavishly over face and neck—arms often need it, too, remember. Let its pure oils bring to the surface of the skin the dust and dirt, rouge and powder with which the pores are clogged.

With a soft cloth wipe off the cream, noting what a lot of dirt comes too. Repeat the process and now let your mirror tell you what your rose-leaf skin feels —that it was never so clean before. Finish with a dash of cold water or a rub with ice.

To protect and finish, always before going out and before powdering, smooth on Pond's Vanishing Cream—just what the skin will absorb. It gives your skin a lovely finish, a lustrous transparent look. It makes you hold your powder longer than before, and protects your skin from the chapping, drying effects of winter winds and cold.

Buy your own Pond's today—in any drug or department store! Soon with money shoulders, radiance of cheeks and throat, you will find that you too can triumphantly meet the "First Night" test. The Pond's Extract Company, 146 Brock Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

Every skin needs these Two Creams—they guard the lovely complexion of society women everywhere
