A RHYMESTER'S JOKE

New Brunswick boasts a hilly town,
Quite famous by unique renown,
First for the export of the fog,
But more so for perpetual fog.

The morning fog comes thick and fast,
The night fog comes when day is past;
So fog on fog is piled on high,
Till in the fog you nearly die.

"Tis fog within and fog without,
If short or long or lean or stout,
You're sure to get a goodly share,
For fog they breathe instead of air.

The fog brings with it drizzly rain
That sets your temper 'gainst the grain,
Uncomfortably damp you feel,
In foggy clothes from head to heel.

I saw two boys the other night
With sleeves rolled up, begin to fight,
The fog around them grew so dense,
That opposite a married flirt.

A crowded car in Main street broad
Had many folks and fog aboard;
A lady clad in purple and in blue,
Sat opposite a married flit.

"My seat," said he, with bat in hand,
"So fair a lady must not stand."
And turning round her face he saw,
And low, it was his mother-in-law.

But yesterday in love's own bliss
Two lovers met—be went to kiss,
But in the fog he aimed too high,
And plunked it square upon her eye.

And now I'll leave this foggy shore,
The fog-horn's too I'll hear no more,
But I'll never forget while life rolls on,
The pranks the fog played at St. John.

ANON.

FRANK SMITH TO WED IN CALGARY

(Calgary Daily Herald)
On August 28, Frank "Red" Smith, well known local baseball and hockey player, is to be married.

He is to be married to Miss Gladys Church, who is a popular young Calgary lady, and they will be wedded at the Wesley Methodist church, according to arrangements.

"Red" is held in high esteem by all the sportsmen in this city and he has always been looked upon as one of Calgary's clearest sports and a young man of pleasing personality who has done a great deal for the furtherance of all interests in connection with amateur sport.

Last year he was manager of the Columbus Club ball team, and this season he has played short for the same club while the reins of management were turned over to Jean Bride. It has fallen upon "Red's" shoulders to carry the burden of the leadership, however, as Bride was injured in the opening game of the season and has been unable to take an active part in the ball management.

He is a snappy ball player, who is always in the game, and as a hockey player he has also won an enviable reputation for himself. He led the Crystal team in the City League three years ago and played with the Columbus Club in the last two winters.

All sport fans will join in extending to Mr. Smith and Miss Church their best wishes on the sea of matrimony, which they hope will be calm throughout their journey of life.

Mr. Smith is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of 179 Douglas Avenue, St. John, N. B. He has been in Calgary for the last nine years.

POLICE COURT

Charged with being drunk in Brussels street and also with loud shouting, Carl Peterson pleaded not guilty to both charges in the police court this morning. Policeman Smith testified that he saw the accused in Brussels street shouting and yelling to some one in the third story of a building. He said he found him drunk and placed him under arrest. He was fined $8 or two months on each of the charges.

A case against James Demaine, charged with interfering with an inspector in the prosecution of his duty, was again taken up. Inspector Merryfield said that as the defendant had a position awaiting him and as he already spent some time in jail, he did not want to have him incarcerated any longer. The magistrate imposed a fine of $80 or ten months in jail and allowed it to stand.

A case against Arthur Bustard charged with his wife with attacking her, was postponed for a week.

Another hearing was given in the case of Frank Doran, charged with keeping liquor in his licensed beer saloon, corner of Brunswick and Hanover streets. No further evidence was taken. The accused has been out on a deposit of $50. This was increased this morning to $200, and the case set for Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Two protectionists were held for investigation.

RAW SUGAR TAKES

ANOTHER TUMBLE

Sugar is still on the toboggan in New York. Yesterday raw sugar was quoted at twelve cents, in bond. This is a further decline and shows a very marked drop from the price of two months ago. While the price here remains high, a despatch today says the retail price in Winnipeg declined a cent yesterday.

Distinctiveness In Home Furnishings

There is a widespread demand today for furniture that creates for the home that atmosphere of refinement—furniture that immediately impresses the visitor with the unusual charm and attractiveness of the home. No one wants a commonplace home. It's a home that bespeaks distinctiveness—that truly reflects one's personality, that everyone desires. And what else can so completely attain that desire, as sensible, distinctive furniture does!

Discrimination in selecting that quality of furniture to suit the demands for not only homes that are the latest word in luxury, but for cozy, comfortable little cottages as well, has been an important influence for the repeated patronage that this store enjoys. Customers come in again and again, not always with the intention of buying but to see the beautiful new furnishings in the latest and most distinctive designs. And not to be disregarded, is the intrinsic worth of this better quality furniture—furniture that is built to endure and which you appreciate and enjoy in after years.
