Pastor Honored.

A former St. John pastor, Rev. J. B. Champion, was honored a few nights ago at his parsonage in Centerville, N. B., when members of his congregation presented to him and his wife a purse containing $170. Members of the churches on his circuit gathered at the parsonage and the presentation was made by J. A. Watters of Lakeville.

RECENT WEDDINGS

In the Central Methodist church, Moncton, Tuesday, December 9, Miss Hazel Etta Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Atkinson, was united in marriage to Reginald St. Clair Hoggood, of Halifax. Rev. Hammond Johnson, pastor of Wesley Memorial Methodist church, performed the ceremony. Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. Love Mrs. Wetmore and J. Martinez Robertson, St. John.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. David Hutchinson, D. D., last evening, Miss Ada Beatrice Proctor of Cady's, Queens County, was united in marriage to Roy Burtis Merrill of this city.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Benton, N. B., Wednesday, December 10, their youngest daughter, Stella Eva, was united in marriage to H. G. Budd Hallett of Millville, N. B., by Rev. Mr. Turner, Debec Junction, N. B.

Miss Alma Blanche Havens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Havens, Jacksonville, N. B., was united in marriage to Earle W. Turner of St. John, Wednesday, December 10. Rev. H. Harrison was assisted by Rev. Mr. Fenwick in performing the ceremony.

The wedding of Miss Jennie May Adams and James Arthur King was solemnized yesterday at the residence of the bride's uncle, Edward Foster, 83 Millidge avenue, by Rev. R. P. McKim, rector of St. Luke's church. The bride wore a pretty suit of blue and was given in marriage by her uncle. She is a daughter of David Adams, formerly of this city, but now of Winnipeg. Following the ceremony there was a very dainty luncheon. Many valuable wedding gifts were received. The groom's present to his bride was a set of furs, while from her father she received a chest of table silver.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of J. Wallace Taylor took place Wednesday, December 10, at his home in Salisbury, N. B., at the age of seventy-six years, after a short illness. He leaves his wife, two daughters, two sons and one brother.
