Severely wounded in the head and blinded by his own blood, a Belgian colonel is here shown being led back from the trenches before Antwerp by two sergeants after the Germans captured the position.

ONLY 15,000 IN
2ND CONTINGENT

British Army Council Unable to Handle Any More at Present
—To Complete Two Army
Divisions

"There has been received from the British government a despatch to the effect that the army council wish the second overseas contingent to be so organized that, in conjunction with one of the four brigades of Canadian infantry already in England, it will form a division complete in itself as far as possible, with an additional due proportion of army service corps units for duty on lines of communication.

"The contingent will accordingly consist of two brigades of infantry, consisting of eight battalions, a complement of artillery, engineers, cyclist, signal and administration units, such as army service corps and field ambulances, and the following units for lines of communication purposes: Divisional ammunition park, divisional supply column, reserve park, field battery, field butchery, railway supply detachment and two depot units of supply.

"The numerical strength of the contingent will be over 15,000 men—and the total Canadian expeditionary force for both first and second contingents will exceed 45,000.

"This does not include the reinforcements which will be required from time to time to maintain it in numbers and efficiency from the time it takes part in active operations."

"Reinforcements are calculated at a yearly rate of seventy per cent. of the total force engaged."

WORK OF THE RED CROSS SOCIETY

Reports Submitted at Meeting
Yesterday Show Great Activity of Local Branch

At the regular meeting of the Red Cross Society, held in the Stone church school yesterday afternoon, important business was transacted by the large number of members present. A vote of sympathy to Mrs. Robert Thompson, vice-president of the society, in her recent bereavement, was moved by Lady Tilley and seconded by Mrs. G. F. Smith.

A letter was read from Lady Tilley asking for a donation to Queen Mary's Needlework Guild and a committee was appointed to look after contributions, as follows: Mrs. McAvity, Mrs. F. S. White and Mrs. McEldan. Articles made up will be forwarded on the first steamer leaving this port.

The Red Cross charter, which was received recently, was displayed and the president announced that thanks are due Messrs. Roche & Company for the framing.

The conduct of Red Cross work in Montreal was explained by Mrs. G. F. Smith. It was announced that Red Cross pins may be obtained from Mrs. James Harding on payment of fifty cents, and books of reasons for joining the Red Cross were distributed among the members.

The membership fees are: Life member, $25; special member, $5; ordinary member, $2; associate (without vote) $1.

Mrs. Morrissey read an interesting letter from Miss Cathels, who went to the war zone as a nurse attached to No. 6 general hospital. Miss Cathels is now on duty on a hospital train running to the coast.

Mrs. F. S. White reported seven boxes ready for shipment, and acknowledged from St. Monica's Catholic Ladies' Benefit Society 100 flannel night shirts, and Girls' University Club, 75 pyjama jackets.

The following have helped in the work:

Girls' University Club, Trinity church, St. Paul's church, Victoria street Baptist church, Philadelphia German street Baptist church, Willing Workers, German street Baptist church, Miss Bigelow, Mrs. John Cowan, Miss Barlow, Miss E. Armstrong, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Cotter, Mrs. J. H. A. Anderson, Miss Barbara, Mrs. A. Emma, Miss Dingee, Mrs. J. A. Grant, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. H. W. Macleod, Miss A. T. Rankin, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. F. A NEGLECTED COLD
WILL VERY OFTEN TURN TO CONSUMPTION.

Never neglect what at first seems to be only a slight cold. Perhaps you start to cough, a little irritation in the throat ensues, then it gets lower down, settles on the lungs and bronchitis sets in, and you start to raise phlegm of a greenish, yellowish color, and you cough persistently.

If you let the simple cold run it will surely develop into something very serious, and perhaps consumption.

On the first sign of a cold or cough go to your dealer and procure a bottle of

DR. WOOD'S
NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

A few doses will convince you that it is just the remedy you require.

Mrs. J. W. Pearson, Amherst, N.S., writes: "Some time ago my daughter had a very bad cough which settled on her chest. She had no rest day or night. I gave her everything I could think of, but without doing her the least bit of good. At last I thought of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle for her. She had not taken half of it before she got relief, and with the remainder she was completely cured. Now when any of the family have a cough we always know what to get for it."

Dr. Wood's is 25c and 50c.

NORTH SEA CLOSED TO MERCHANT SHIPPING

London, Nov. 2, 11.15 p. m.—The entire North Sea has been declared a military area, and merchant vessels entering it will be exposed to the gravest dangers from the mines which it has been necessary to lay, and from the warships which are searching vigilantly by night and day for suspicious craft.

London, Nov. 2, 4.55 p. m.—A Central News despatch from Amsterdam says that German 42-centimetre guns have been placed on Borkum Island, in the North Sea.

SUGAR MYSTERY.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—No commodity would seem to have been on the ice-aw because of the war so much as sugar. The refiners' quotation in Montreal on last Thursday was $7.05. By the time it reaches the consumer it is $8. In England, however, it is only $7. Why is it that sugar in Montreal where it ought to be easy to get supplies, costs more than in London? A sugar expert in Montreal blames the refiners. He says that it is impossible to get imported sugar at the present time. Conditions on the ocean prohibit it. He lays the blame for today's conditions on the shoulders of the refiners. He says that they can short of raw sugar, and could not purchase any for the time. In this event they simply took advantage of the market and boosted and boosted until the present levels were reached.

RURAL PLAY IN OPERA HOUSE BY STOCK COMPANY

Thompson-Woods Players Give
Adequate Production of Comedy
Drama "Shadowed Lives"

A four act rural comedy drama, "Shadowed Lives," was presented last night by the Thompson-Woods Company at the Opera House to the pleasure of a large audience who seemed to relish the better portions of the play. It was well staged and directed and the scenic fixtures were very attractive. The various roles were ably taken and the cast was nicely balanced.

The story of "Shadowed Lives" of which Justin Adams was the author, deals with quiet country life at Dexter Mills, Me., and also with the contrasting liveliness of times at Harvard University and on the high seas. Too much confidence in a college chum is repaid by Allan Dexter, a fine, whole-hearted young student whose chief fault is good-nature. He gives the chum, Bertram Wade, money to help him clear himself of a forged note, money in fact which was given Dexter by his father for investment purposes, and then he finds out, after having so kindly treated this "wolf in lamb's clothing," that the chum has contemptibly treated his sister. He makes all possible effort to have proofs of her good name given those of her friends who may learn of the situation, but finds that Wade has destroyed the marriage certificate. This, of course, complicates matters, but there is the usual readjustment of all difficulties, and the curtain falls on the Dexter homestead in the last act with harmony and happiness prevailing.

On the first sign of a cold or cough go to your dealer and procure a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A few doses will convince you that it is just the remedy you require.

Mrs. J. W. Pearson, Amherst, N.S., writes: "Some time ago my daughter had a very bad cough which settled on her chest. She had no rest day or night. I gave her everything I could think of, but without doing her the least bit of good. At last I thought of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle for her. ITALIAN BOYS AT IMPERIAL

New Vaudeville and Attractive List of Films—"Master Mind" Tomorrow

A pair of diminutive Italian boys do a very classy musical act at the Imperial this week—something like the street musicians who used to visit St. John some years ago. The wee chaps, who are delighted at the prospect of their first going to the big city, are singing "Hear You Calling Me" with most artistic effect and last evening were repeatedly encored. The Festival Orchestra under Mr. Swornbourne's baton rendered a charming list of selections including Two Dances from Henry VIII, a Waltz from the opera "The Merry Widow," "The Circus Girl" and incidental numbers.

The film bill was odd. It was rather of the ordinary in subject matter. Alice Joyce essayed still another role in that of a safe-cracking girl of the New York underworld who was translated to her former spirit and self of several hundred years back when one of the harem of a Sultan was rendered. This was called "The Mystery of the Sleeping Death" and proved a queer picture indeed, demanding great attention. There was a Hearst-Selig Weekly with plenty of good war pictures and a Vitaphone cartoon featuring fat and good-natured Hughey Mack.

The Wednesday-Thursday change of bill will be so useful to the general productions, "The Master Mind," featuring the eminent star Edmund Breese. This will be a wonderful film and because of Mr. Breese's many friends here and his personal popularity many will likely want to see it. "The Master Mind" is a sort of psychic story, something out of the ordinary and abounds in stirring situations.

AT THE UNIQUE.

Fifteenth Episode of The Million Dollar Mystery Draws Large Audiences and Pleases Greatly.

Every week the Million Dollar Mystery becomes deservedly more popular, for the simple fact that it is getting more interesting. The fifteenth chapter now being shown at the Unique is probably the most sensational of all. Herein is introduced open air excitement on a huge scale. The conspirators are on the trail of Florence, and after threatening to disfigure her, they carry off in a large and fast motor boat.

Norton learns of what happens and makes a successful attempt to rescue the girl by means of a large hydroplane. The rescue scene is decidedly the most thrilling yet, and was watched with interest by the hundreds who patronized the Unique yesterday.

Two other excellent subjects are included in the bill, a drama, Cameo of Yellowstone, and Those Country Kids, a Keystone comedy.

SUMMARY OF MORNING CABLES

It is estimated by competent authorities in the French war office that Germany has in Belgium, and along the Franco-German frontier, about 1,750,000 men. The Allies, including Belgium, have about 2,225,000 men. The Allies, it is thought, could break through at any time but prefer to wait for a decisive moment. France still has about 1,800,000 under arms in training in different districts not at the front, while the strength of General Frenel's army actively engaged is about 300,000. R-

Patriotism
and the
Made-in-Canada Idea

MUCH as I dislike introducing the personal element into this question, I am prompted to do so by the unprecedented conditions existing, which cause us all to realize that we cannot, with prudence or patriotism, act independently of one another at this time. Hence, I trust this message will be accepted in the spirit in which it is written.

Before me lie two letters, one to me personally, from Mr. E. G. Henderson, President, Canadian Manufacturers' Association, in which he states:

"The most fruitful cause of distress during the coming winter will be unemployment. As an employer of labor you will have not only your responsibility, but the opportunity of fulfilling this responsibility. USE EVERY EFFORT TO KEEP THE WHEELS TURNING."

The other letter is a copy of the original sent by the Secretary of the Retail Merchants of Canada, Inc., to the Quebec members of that body (I herewith quote from his letter):

"We think it would be advisable for you to point out to your customers that in their purchases they should give the preference to goods 'MADE-IN-CANADA,' which would help to keep Canadian factories busy thereby giving employment to Canadians, who are so much in need of earning as much as possible. To encourage home industries is a good policy at all times, but should be urged upon at this trying period for self-preservation."

It is my duty as a citizen of Canada to subscribe to the Patriotic Fund; it is my duty as a manufacturer to keep down the prices of my products even against the advancing cost of raw material; but above all it is my duty as a fellow-man to keep my employees in bread during the months to come.

As the head of one of Canada's industries, am I not right in asking for your support during the critical period?

I am told that more than $5,000,000.00 worth of shoes entered Canada from just one foreign country last year. This business diverted to your own Canadian factories would help keep the wheels turning a lot more steadily.

When Canadians buy "Made-in-Canada" goods, the money paid out still circulates in this country, so that the whole community benefits thereby, when Canadians buy elsewhere the money goes out of the country and 99% of it fails to return. DO WE NEED THAT 99%?

CONSTIPATION RELIEVED
ENTIRELY AT OUR RIS

Unless Rexall Orderlies relieve your troubles and make you feel like coming back to thank us for telling you about them, then come back anyway, and ask us to give you back your money. This is just strong as we can make this guarantee: we want to make it strong, because we believe that Rexall Orderlies are the best bowel remedy made.

Soothing and easy in action, they clean the bowels, thoroughly toning and strengthening them, and make you feel great. They promote easy and regular bowel action help to promptly relieve constipation as overcome its cause. In these things they differ from old-fashioned, harsh, disagreeable salts and other physics which usually give only temporary relief and often leave the bowels in worse condition than ever. They taste like candy and even children like them. They are pure, wholly good, children and for delicate and aged people. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c. You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at Rexall Stores, and in this town only at Rexall Stores, 100 King, 473 Main, 699 Main.

Great Britain has more Mohammedan subjects than any other power in the world. Its ruler governs more Moslems than any other four rulers put together. The total number of followers of the Arabian prophet living in the British Empire is probably about 88,000,000, and of these 66,000,000 are natives. There are more Mohammedans in India than in any other country on earth.

Waltham
Watches

In the tiny Waltham "Jewel Series" models, the wrist watch achieves Perfection. Previously, wrist watches have been "ornaments"; their timekeeping has been only incidental and consequently poor.

In this new and exclusive Waltham design, Accuracy keeps pace with Beauty. The wearer possesses an adornment and a watch. Strikingly original in this feature: The bracelet unfolds at both ends and both watch and bracelet may be worn separately—the watch as chataleine or sautoir, with a fob or wrist strap, or in the pocket.

Your jeweler will have this unique watch in model priced as low as $29—fully guaranteed and of true "Waltham" quality. Ask him.
