CLEANLINESS IN DENTISTRY

If people knew the frightful risk they run of infection from unclean dentistry they would better realize the awful chances they take and what a mighty important factor cleanliness is.

No one has ever disputed the fact that there are no cleaner offices in Canada than ours. This is worthy of consideration.

LOCAL NEWS

Three men charged with drunkenness, Chase, John Dryer, and Thomas Henderson, were fined $4 each this morning in the police court.

The police have reported Denis Murphy, a coachman, for soliciting passengers at the Union depot, and Louis Kerr, another coachman, for going beyond the stand for coachmen at the same place.

Frank Hamilton, formerly of this city, but now passenger ticket agent for the C. P. R. at Montreal, is visiting his parents on Waterloo street. He will shortly leave for Halifax and Digby on a pleasure trip.

In the police court this morning the cases against Theo. J. Phillips, Patrick Walsh, and William Humphreys in connection with the shooting of Harry Brundage at the extension a few weeks ago were postponed until this afternoon.

Andrew Wilson, of Aredaide street, was taken to the hospital this morning in the ambulance. Mr. Wilson has been suffering for the last two years with stomach trouble, which of late has developed into such a serious condition that his physician, Dr. W. W. White, advised him to enter the hospital for treatment. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Residents of Paradise Row complain that an old man who lives the life of a hermit in an old shack, is a great source of annoyance to the neighborhood. Monday night he was seen wandering about in various back yards with a lighted lamp, and in a nearby naked condition. It is suggested that the police look into the matter.

QUEEN SQUARE CHURCH ACTIVE

Improvements to Edifice Made and New Choir Arrangements Completed—Will Re-open October 9

Queen Square church, which has been closed for some weeks while several important changes have been effected, including the lowering of the choir loft and organ will reopen a week from next Sunday, on which occasion the anniversary of the founding of the church will be celebrated. On this date also will be inaugurated important changes in the personnel and policy of the choir, which in future is expected to take a high rank among local organizations of a similar nature.

To this end A. C. Ritchie has been engaged as choir director and leading bass, associated with him being Mrs. Godson and Miss Gaetz, soprano; Mr. Bamford, tenor, and a contralto to be announced later. The first rehearsal of the new choir will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock when it is hoped to have all present members and as many new ones as possible in attendance.

It is Mr. Ritchie's intention to have a chorus choir of nearly 50 voices within a few weeks, and in this connection he will be delighted to hear from any singer wishing to associate themselves.

Queen Square congregation starts the fall and winter season of 1910 with a new minister—the Rev. Mr. Gaetz, a rejuvenated church building, and a new choir, all of which has resulted in a spirit of optimism in the membership of the congregation.

BOARD OF TRADE BANQUET FOR PRESIDENT C. M. HAYS

Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Hon. George P. Graham Also Invited to Attend

At a meeting of the council of the board of trade this morning it was decided that a banquet be tendered to President C. M. Hays of the G. T. P., on his arrival in the city. The board have not as yet received word as to the day when Mr. Hays will be here. Besides Hon. Wm. Pugsley, who is to meet Mr. Hays here, it is hoped to have at the banquet also, Hon. George P. Graham, minister of railways.

ALEXANDER T. OF H. HARVEST SUPPER

The second annual harvest supper of the Alexandra T. of H. is to be held tomorrow evening, and strong committees have been at work for some time making preparations which it is thought, will assure success. Three long tables, heavily laden, and tastefully decorated have been placed in position in Temple Building, Main street, where the supper is to be served tomorrow evening from 5 to 9 o'clock.

Those having the affair in charge are: Mrs. T. A. Black, Mrs. Z. O. Wilson, Mrs. Bachelor, Mrs. J. Parks, and Mrs. J. O. Wilson. The tables will be in care of Mrs. R. W. Downing, Mrs. H. Carr, and Mrs. S. Gilbert, and the young ladies who will assist in the serving will be: Misses Vera Whelpley, Hattie Vanwart, Grace Wilson, Maude Rutherford, Helen McAlary, Ethel and Lena Hastings, Helen Long, Audrey Mullin, H. Miller, C. Parks, M. Wilson, and M. Estabrooks.

EVERY DAY CLUB SPORTS

One of the liveliest events at the Every Day Club sports on Oct. 8th will be a five-mile bicycle race on the club track, open only to messenger boys of the city. They are taking the liveliest interest in it, and already about a dozen entries have been received.

The club decided at its last meeting to make the ten-mile running race a road race, instead of having it all run on the track.

ITALIAN ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Andy Rossi Arraigned in Circuit Court Today

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Some Delay in Getting a Jury But Panel Finally Agreed On—The Evidence This Morning—Prisoner Unconcerned

On being arraigned this morning in the circuit court, before His Honor Mr. Justice Landry, the young Italian, Giovanni Rossi, alias Andrew Ross, indicted on a charge of wilfully murdering a competitor, Diego Siracusa, pleaded not guilty. He was represented by J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., and G. Barle Logan, while Attorney-General Hazen, prosecuted.

Rossi does not seem to have suffered to any extent from his imprisonment, appearing this morning in a healthy-looking condition, and when placed in the prisoner's dock, seemed quite unconcerned, and contented himself with gazing stolidly about him.

Twenty-two citizens had been summoned before the court for jury service, but only ten of these were sworn, the remainder being either challenged or not in court, so that at the request of the attorney-general, six others were summoned, and asked to appear at noon in court.

Counsel for the defense said this morning that one juror, Samuel H. Sherwood, Jr., had informed them by telephone that he had formed an opinion in the case, and could not therefore act as an impartial juror. He admitted in court this morning that he had said this in order to avoid jury duty, and did not really mean that he could not give a verdict on the evidence submitted. He was, however, challenged by the prosecutor.

Mr. Baxter said that he thought an example should be made of cases of this sort, as they were a great hindrance to the conducting of trials.

The jury sworn was as follows: Wm. J. Nagle, Gilbert C. Jordan, Waldemar Pederson, Needham B. Springer, Walter H. Irving, George W. Falkins, Alexander Corbet, Charles Robinson, Thomas J. Dean, David B. Edgson, Thos. E. Dillon, and William C. Magee.

Those challenged were: Enoch O. Parsons, George Dick, Harry R. Coleman, Samuel Sherwood, and Charles H. Knoll. The names of others were called, but they were not present.

The indictment, was read over to the prisoner, and Attorney-General Hazen outlined briefly, the case to the jury. He said in part:

"You have just heard read the indictment charging the prisoner with the murder of competitor, Diego Siracusa, on June 28. Both the dead man and the defendant in the case are Italians, who have been living in St. John for some time. The crime is a very serious one, in fact, one of the most serious in the category of crime. In this case it seems to have been committed with malice aforethought. This is different from manslaughter, which is the killing in the heat of passion, and in the case of Rossi, it would seem, through the evidence, that the crime was premeditated."

In a concise manner, Mr. Hazen then outlined the case, dealing with the evidence given and concluded with saying that from the nature of the testimony which would be offered, he thought there could be only one verdict—that of murder.

The first witness was Cornelius Sullivan, who said he had known the prisoner for about two months, and that on the Saturday night previous to the murder, he was talking with him in Siracusa's store in North street. Rossi complained of having to stay in the shop while his employer was out walking with Minnie Jones, and threatened to close up the store and go out to the park. Rossi spoke of going to Boston on the following Monday. He produced a loaded revolver from his trousers' pocket and showed it to the witness. While he was in the store Minnie Jones and Siracusa came in and went out, together a second time.

A young girl, Julia Jones, told the court of being in the store on the same evening and of having been asked by Rossi, if her sister Minnie was going out with the boss. The little girl replied that "she did not know," to which Rossi responded: "If the boss goes out with Minnie, he'll never walk out here again."

John Wolff, formerly of this city, but now of Campbellton, was also a witness to the store on the Saturday night already referred to, and he also gave evidence of seeing Rossi there with a revolver. The prisoner told him that neither he nor Siracusa would be around the place tomorrow (meaning Sunday), as it was to be closed up, there being no business doing.

Wolff was the last witness this morning, and the hearing was adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon.

It is expected that there will be a night session.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT TELEPHONE RATES MAY BE HEARD

Public Utilities Commission Meeting Here This Afternoon

The Public Utilities Commission meet this afternoon in the government rooms. It is probable that the telephone committee of the Board of Trade will appear before the commission with reference to the telephone rates.

F. P. Robinson, secretary of the commission, who came from Massachusetts at noon, said that he had not been officially advised by the committee of their desire to be heard, and all he knew was from the newspapers. Should they come before the commission however, it would only be a preliminary to the hearing as a request would have to come through him in the regular way. James Pender, chairman of the committee, said this morning that it had not been decided definitely that they would go before the commission today.
