6th. 'That truth is stranger than fiction.''

From the loregoing we ask are we deserving of the foul mouthed abuse that we received from R. Hutchison's hands. Had we any interest to cheat Messrs Fish or Hutchison. None, Did we like to descend to Hutchison. None, Did we like to descend to abuse, or to look minutely into his character and motives, his honesty, or to his personal surroundings he might then cry out.' Good Lord deliver us.' To abuse him would only be carrying out the wise saying of a very aimed the members of Presbytery and large and recomplete of the Rev. Messrs. M'Bain and Nicholson. The desirability of having a manse erected was brought before the congregation by the Rev. Mr. Anderson, the result being that the congregation resolved to build the same without delay, appointing a congregation at meeting to be held on Thursday, the 22nd instant, after Thanksgiving Service, to devise ways and means.
