Newfoundland Notice to Mariners

No. 14—1914.

Burnt Islands District of Burgeo—South West Coast

Latitude 47° 35' 40" N.
Longitude 58° 53' 00" W.
Notice is hereby given that two Red Lights have been placed on Great Burnt Island for the guidance of fishing craft of that harbour.

Structures—Wood, square in plan with sloping sides, 15 feet high from base to centre of light.
Colour—Both towers painted with two red and two white horizontal bands, lanterns white.
Remarks—Lights will be put in operation during month of January, 1915, without further notice.

N. B.—Burnt Islands Harbour affords good and sheltered anchorage for vessels of moderate size, but even with a small vessel no stranger should attempt to enter without a pilot, for the channels are not easily distinguished from seaward, and the numerous rocks give but little room for manoeuvring.

A Good Investment $1.00 ONLY

Every young man and young woman should have a copy of Dr. Stall's

Self and Sex Books

They cost only $1.00 a copy. It will be the best investment you have ever made. Read what the Rev. F. B. Meyer, B. A., of London, England, has to say regarding these books:

"The questions which are dealt with in the 'Self and Sex Series' of books are always being asked and if the answer is not forthcoming from pure and wise lips it will be obtained through vicious and empirical channels. I therefore greatly commend this series of books, which are written lucidly and purely, and will afford the necessary information without pandering to unholy and sensual passions. I should like to see a wide and judicious distribution of this literature among Christian circles."

Ten Little Sausages

By a Sergeant. Written on Christmas Eve During a Sleepless night in Hospital

Ten little Sausages marching all in line:

One stopped to burn Louvain, and then there were nine.

Nine little Sausages, carry to relate, One was found spying, and then there were eight.

Eight little Sausages dropping bombs from heaven;

One dropped himself instead, and then there were seven.

Seven little Sausages up to lots of tricks;

One was caught in Klaki, and then there were six.

Six little Sausages and officer to drive; By mistake he got in front, and then there were five.

Five little Sausages waging Kultur war;

One stopped to kill a child, and then there were four.

Four little Sausages marching to Paris;

One got there a prisoner, and then there were three.

Three little Sausages looking rather blue;

One met a Russian Bear, and then there were two.

Two little Sausages, father and son;

The boy was "lagged" for burglary, and then there was one.

One little Kaiser, left all alone;

Won't he have a bill to pay for all that he had done.

Novel Method of Cursing England

Zurich, July 22 (by mail).—Copies of the Frankfurter Volksstimme received here contain this advertisement: I sell slightly worn suits, made to measure.

GOD only knows how cheap. New suits, overcoats, dining jackets, dress coats, frock coats, mackintoshes, and trousers are also to be had so much reduced in price that someone almost ought to PUNISH me, but during the war I am selling at altogether exceptionally low prices. All these articles are genuinely German for we will have nothing to do with

Over each gateway of the Illinois Steel Company's plant can be found a glittering electric sign reading as follows to the vast numbers of employees on the night shift:

Did booze ever do you any good?

Did booze ever get you a better job?

Did booze ever contribute anything to the happiness of your family?

The company has also sent milk vendors through the plant as first aid to thirty men in the effort to take John Barleycorn off the payroll and thus promote the efficiency of the workers and minimize accidents.

Flares Seen On Groais Islands

Some of the crew of the Prospero report that on Tuesday night last when the ship was running from Eggle to Cooche, five clear night flares were seen burning on the top of the cliffs on the Western End of Groais Island. They burnt very brightly and were at some distance apart.

Fishermen pursue their calling on this and the Southern part of the island, but even if busy in the stages at night they use torches, and had they reason for large fires or flares would not need to go to the top of the cliffs to light them. The captain and quite a number on the ship viewed the flares for an hour or so and there was much conjecture on the ship as to the reason for such a concurrence.

L.M.A. wants to know about thin or thick soled shoes and light and heavy weight clothing.

Answer: Don't wear thin soled shoes. One may take cold from chilling of the feet as the result of wearing thin soled shoes in walking over a cold pavement, even when the pavement is perfectly dry.

In spite of the fact that modern fashions favor light clothing, there are still some people who wear too heavy clothes. If your work is indoors, where it is warm, dress lightly, and put on extra clothes when you go out in the cold. Of course warm weather demands light clothing.

Here is one on a Philadelphia policeman. Several days ago the driver of a motor car who was parking his machine on Broad street approached the traffic officer at the corner and offered him a dollar to watch his car until he returned. The man happened to be a resident of Chicago and had just received a telegram calling him home in a hurry. Not knowing what to do with his car on such a short notice, he hit upon the scheme to employ the officer. He was gone four days.
