Something of the truth has been reached, but nobody believes that the whole truth or anything near it has been revealed. No one, for histance, believes the body was put into the Scadouc River by Harry Osborne unsatisted. Then, if not, who assisted the young man? Who are all the parties implicated in this fearful tragedy? It may take months to discover the whole truth, but that it will be made known we it is the duty of every law-abiding, hon-est man who knows anything which will has been a long one and the proceed-

The Coroner's inquest is progressing and will, probably continue all the week. The body has been baried by the relatives. We take the following from the Telegraph:
