Montreal, Nov. 2.-A' delegation composed of Robert Bickerdike, president of the board of trade: John Torrance of the Dominion line, and Mr. Harling of the Dempster line went to Ottawa today and interviewed Premier Laurier regarding the improve-ment of the Dominion waterways. Hon. Mr. Laurier replied that the government intended to take up the question in the near future, and the delegation returned to Montreal convinced that the early completion of the canals to a fourteen foot depth. and the channel between Montreal and Quebec to thirty feet, so as to permit the largest steamers to sail up to the commercial metropolis. Marc C. Ethier, a prominent lawyer, is dying at Notre Dame hospital. He attempted to commit suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. Three years ago his wife, a beautiful society woman, was discovered in an intrigue with her confessor, young Abbe Guyhot, one of the brightest priests in Montreal, and attached to St. James' church. The abbe was unfrocked and went to the U.S. Mrs. Ethier went to New York. Ever since that time Ethier has been despondent and drinking heavily.

carry the mails from Halifax to Liv-The upper end of the Sand point wharf is built nearly to its full height. The idea of putting braces under water by a diver has been abandoned, and an attempt will be made to stay them from above. There is a great, deal of work yet to be done in bridging over the space between the outer wharf and the breastwork inside. Gravel trains are being run at night to hasten matters along, but considerable delay is experienced in the driving of piling.
