

CORRESPONDENTS' CORNER

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, N. B., Dec. 12.—Rev. J. P. Crabtree went to Centerville and Tracy's Mills Wednesday to attend the quarterly meetings now being held at the Mills.

Miss Gladys Eley is in St. John this week attending the telephone operators convention.

J. L. White sent a box of tobacco to each of our town boys who are wearing the khaki just to remind them that we still have Santa Claus and the Christmas spirit in Grand Falls.

A number of the friends of Mrs. S. Smith surprised her by giving her a birthday party on Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed themselves very much and expressed the wish that Mrs. Smith would enjoy many more birthdays.

Leigh Murray left Saturday for Montreal where he has a position in a machine shop.

Miss Mary Price, who has been in Bangor, Maine, for the last two months returned home last week.

Tom Murray is in Caribou, Maine, for a few weeks visit.

About $25 was realized from the supper given by the ladies of the Baptist congregation in the McCuskey building Tuesday evening.

Miss Jay Glen, who has been in Woodstock for about two months is home.

Potatoes which have been as high as $2.25 per barrel, are selling today at $1.69.

Mr. Herbert Rideout received a telegram Wednesday night from his sister, Mrs. Albert Lloyd, in British Columbia, saying that her husband was dead. He has received no particulars yet. Their many friends sympathize with them in their sorrow.

Mrs. Lloyd's brother, Mr. Bert Rideout, will start tomorrow for Vancouver to be with his sister in her trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. LeClair are rejoicing on the arrival of a brand new baby boy.

A fire started in the barn of John Carroll Wednesday about noon and did considerable damage to the building, but luckily was gotten under control before doing very much mischief. As the buildings are quite congested in that section it would have been a serious matter if it had not been looked after at once.

Miss Florence McLaughlin of Ortonville visited friends in town this week. The women's institute are to give a leap year ball Jan. 2nd, admission $1.50 per couple, including supper.

Clarence Estabrooke who has been in the west with the Dominion Bridge Co. the past two or three years, arrived home from Merritt, B. C., to spend Christmas with his parents.

Mrs. J. Kirkpatrick left Saturday, accompanied by her little son to join her husband, Captain J. G. Kirkpatrick, in Halifax.

Mrs. James Foster and family, who have been living in town this summer, went to Woodstock to make their home there this winter.

BLOOMFIELD STATION

Bloomfield Station, Dec. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Colin Ewing were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond.

Miss Hazel Millican, teacher in the first department of the school here, has been here as teacher again this week.

Miss Zeta Williams who has been at her home here, returned from a few days at the 4th Street Hotel, where she has been since Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Cox returned home Tuesday evening from St. John, where she spent the week-end with relatives.

Measles, Wesley and Medley, N. S., and the Red Cross Society of South Africa, are holding a bazaar at the 4th Street Hotel, Wednesday afternoon, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Gloucester, Dec. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Roger Drury, who has been in St. John, N. B., for a few days, is expected to remain for a short time.

Harold S. Fawcett spent Monday in St. John.

CAMPOBELLO

Campobello, Charlotte Co., Dec. 13.—On Tuesday evening the junior branch of the Women's Auxiliary met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Toyn where they were very pleasantly entertained at a Social Hour Tea. Various sports, games and other sources of amusement served to form a very pleasant evening.

The Episcopal congregation held a sale in the Public Hall on Saturday evening, netting the sum of $19, to be used for a Christmas tree; a similar sale was held by the ladies of the Baptist congregation the same evening in the school room, results amounting to $11.15 to be used for church benefits.

Mr. Thomas Daggett spent a few days of last week at his home here previous to his departure for the South where he will be engaged during the coming winter.

Miss Flora Newman and Miss Mildred Brown were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Calder.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calder spent a few days of last week with friends at St. Andrews.

TO CORRESPONDENTS

Items intended for publication in this column must be written in ink or typewritten, otherwise they will be given no attention. Unsigned items or communications signed with fictitious names will not be accepted.

PEEL

Peel, N. B., Dec. 9.—Mrs. Bennie Tompkins and little daughter are the guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Golding.

Mr. Bedford Boyd of St. Fairfield, is spending a few days with his parents here.

Miss Pauline Rideout has returned from Woodstock after spending two weeks with her sister Mrs. C. W. Manzer.

Mrs. George Campbell of Sticksney was here recently.

Rev. P. J. Quigg is holding evangelistic services in the Union church this week.

Mrs. R. Jones of Lincoln is spending two weeks with her sister Mrs. Wilford A. Rideout.

Earl Ebbett is home again after spending several weeks in Woodstock.

HARVEY

Harvey, Dec. 13.—Ellis Gaynes, one of Harvey's young men, has enlisted to do his bit for king and country.

On Dec. 11th the stork left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown.

The H. R. C. League will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred Bishop on Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Rev. W. B. Crowell is attending the Baptist district meetings at Turle Creek this week.

Raymond D. Robinson having passed the examinations successfully has now entered duty in the Bank of Nova Scotia at Riverdale, Albert, Co.

Many friends of Mrs. Roy Dunning took place on Tuesday afternoon from her uncle's residence at Harvey Brook. Service was conducted by Rev. W. B. Crowell, interment in Bay View cemetery.

HARCOURT

Harcourt, Dec. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lutz of Canaan, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lutz.

Mrs. Harry Wathen, who has spent several months in Hamilton returned on Thursday and will occupy her former stand in the Pride building. Many friends are welcoming Mrs. Wathen and family among them again.

Miss Cynthia Ward has returned from visiting her sister in Bass River.

Mrs. G. P. Ward and Miss Mildred spent several days of the week in Newcastle and Chatham returning on Monday.

Many friends of Mr. Lloyd Wathen will be glad to know he is much improved from his recent painful and prolonged illness.

Mrs. J. F. R. MacMichael was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wathen on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cumming, of the Burka Hotel, spent Friday in Moncton.

The St. John Ambulance Association intends to organize a class of young girls for instruction in First Aid to the injured. Will those wishing to join please apply in writing to the Secretary St. John A. A., 66 Hazen St.

New Calendars. The Standard has received useful wall calendars from the Canada Cement Company, Montreal, and Wild & Stevens, dealers in printers' rollers and supplies, Boston.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Tenders for the construction of the uncompleted sections of the Saint John and Quebec Railway.

Tenders, addressed to the undersigned, will be received for the construction and equipment (without rolling stock) of the uncompleted sections of the line of the Saint John and Quebec Railway Company, in the Province of New Brunswick, at the office of the Company, Fredericton, N. B., up to twelve o'clock noon on Thursday, the thirtieth day of December, instant. Plans, profiles and specifications may be seen at the office of the Company, Fredericton, N. B. Tenders are to state the cost per mile for a complete line of railway, without rolling stock, ready in every respect for operation by the Lessee in accordance with the said plans, profiles and specifications. Tenders are to be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Company, or cash deposit, in either case equal to five per centum of the amount of the tender, and in case of non-acceptance of any tender, said cheque or deposit so accompanying such unaccepted tender will be returned to the tenderer. In case of the acceptance of any tender said cheque or deposit will be retained as a guarantee for the due completion of the contract. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Dated the tenth day of December, A. D. 1915.

Saint John & Quebec Railway Company.

John T. Todd, President.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Dec. 11.—Following are the officers elected by Golden Link Lodge, L. O. B. A. No. 201, Douglas-town for 1916:

W. M., Mrs. Frederick A. Phillips; D. M., Mrs. Amos Williamson; Chap., Mrs. Thomas Vye; R. S., Miss Beattie Wood; F. S., Miss Frances Gray; Treas., Miss Blanche Wood; D. of C., Mrs. James Wood; Lect., Mrs. Robert Gray; I. G., Miss Annie Alexander; O. G., Willis McKenzie; F. of Comm., Mrs. George Russell; Comm., Mrs. Herbert Russell; Mrs. William Wood; Miss Alice McKnight; Miss Lillian Atkinson; Trustees, Mrs. F. A. Phillips; Mrs. James Wood; Mrs. Robert Gray; Auditors, Miss Myrtle Kirkpatrick; Miss Hilda Bass, F. A. Phillips; Guardian, Thomas Vye.

APOHAQUI

Apoquah, Dec. 13.—On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, a large congregation met at the Kennebecasis River to attend a baptismal service, when Rev. Mr. Tingley officiating three young people were baptized in the running stream, and at the evening service was given the right hand of fellowship and became members of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Percy L. Folkins, Sussex, was the guest of Mrs. Frank S. Small on Friday last.

Miss Mabel Innis, Norton, spent the weekend with her cousin Miss Velsky.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.

On Friday afternoon last the ladies of the Baptist W. Missionary Society held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Small. The president of the society extended an invitation to the ladies of the Lower Mill-stream branch and also to the members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society of this place, to meet with them. The meeting opened at 3 o'clock, Mrs. J. P. McAuley presiding. A very entertaining and instructive programme was carried out, including an address from Miss Gaudine returned missionary from India. Mrs. J. L. Tingley, president of the Mill-stream society spoke at some length. Readings were given by Mrs. Murray Gilchrist and Mrs. Wilmet Kierstead, which were very appropriate and much enjoyed. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent very pleasantly, during which afternoon tea was served. Mrs. Small was assisted by Mrs. Percy L. Folkins.

I. D. Gamblin has returned from Victoria's Plaza, where he has been engaged at bridge construction for the last month.

On Friday evening last Mrs. Fred M. Phelps entertained the little boy friends of her son Master Frank, it being his eighth birthday, when a very enjoyable time was spent by the little lads.