Sergt. "Bill" Hanna, who is well known by all Canadian boxing fans, has returned home from France and is awaiting disposal by the military authorities. "Bill" went overseas with the Eaton Battery early in the war and was injured upon his arrival in France. For the past year or so he has been engaged in assisting in the transporting of returned men. His leg was badly torn by a spike on a wagon, rendering him unit for active service in the field. "Bill" holds the Canadian heavyweight boxing title, which he won in 1916, prior to his going overseas. "Bill" has taken part in many Ontario and Canadian torunaments and is a real good heavyweight.

IS FRANK ABOUT IT.

Albert Mamaux, the Brooklyn National League pitcher, who has been placed in Class 1A by his draft board, has arrived in Boston and said he had left the club to seek work in the Fall River plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company.

River plant of the Bethlehem Ship-building Company.

"I am not trying to avoid the draft." Mamaux said. "I am simply looking out for my future. I feel that I have lost most of the baseball stuff I once had, and that I can't make good for Brooklyn. So it is up to me to look ahead, as I have a mother and small brother to take care of. I think I can do, that and at the same time do something to help win the war at shipbuilding."
