

MAN WAS FOUND DEAD GRASPING RAZOR IN HAND

DISCOVERED IN THE BUSHES NEAR RIVER

Mayor of Bout de L'ile and City Detective Noticed Object When Motoring.

Montreal, June 28.—With a razor in his left hand and with the arteries of the left arm and left leg cut, the body of a man, thus far unidentified, was found yesterday afternoon, in some shrubbery near the river a short distance from the Bureau Hotel at Bout de l'ile. In the pockets of the man were no articles that could aid in establishing identity.

The discovery was made by Mayor Dery, of Bout de l'ile and by Detective Pelletier, of the Montreal Detective Bureau. The detective and Mayor Dery were motoring on the road near Bout de l'ile and happened to glance into the shrubbery they noticed something lying there. They stopped their machine and went to investigate. Several other persons also gathered and it was found that the object was the body of a man.

Examination showed that the man was dead and had been dead for approximately four or five days. The body had not been in the water as far as the discoverers or the morgue employees could say. The razor was removed from the man's left hand and there was nothing in the pockets of his clothes beyond a few cigar tickets and ninety cents in cash. On the ground there was no trace of blood and there seemed to be no blood upon the body. No marks on the ground gave any indication that there had been a struggle and it is thought that the man killed himself.

Ontario Gets Rain

Toronto, June 28.—Copious showers have fallen in nearly all parts of Ontario during the last few days, adding millions of dollars in crop prospects to the farmers and fruit growers of Ontario. In several districts the drought had assumed serious proportions, but the recent rains have been of inestimable value to growing grain, small fruits and root crops. The temperature continues quite high with considerable humidity.

Hilton Belyea Off For Boston

Competes in New England Championship Monday—Two More Leave Saturday.

Hilton Belyea, the champion amateur single sculler of the Maritime Provinces, accompanied by his brother Harry, the well known shell builder and oarsman, leave on the Eastern Star steamer Governor Dingley this morning for Boston, and on Monday next Hilton will row in the senior event on the Charles river for the New England championship. Hilton is going better than ever and although he will compete with some very fast oarsmen on the glorious Fourth, his friends have a hunch that the West End man will win the event and at all events if he beats the oarsman who crosses the finish line ahead of him will have to prove remarkably fast. There is no gamier athlete than Hilton Belyea and he leaves for the prize to be won in the Eastern Star from every local lover of sport.

Other Oarsmen Going

On Saturday evening next Grenville McCavour, the champion bow, accompanied by his father, Hugh McCavour, will leave on the steamer Governor Dingley for Boston and the boy wonder will enter in the junior race and will also be open to row any boy in the United States at the age of sixteen or under. Belyea and McCavour are not the only St. John oarsmen who are to try conclusions with the rowing fraternity of the United States next Monday, for the winner of the intermediate race at Millisville Friday will be sent away on the Saturday night trip of the Governor Dingley. The probable winner of this race is either Robert Belyea or Charles Campbell, and while the prize is not as big as the one offered to the winner of the regatta on Friday at Millisville, it is well worth rowing for, the chance of being sent to the New England regatta is a tempting bait, and a great contest is expected.

Chance for Good Trip

A number of rowing fans are taking the Saturday night trip on the Dingley to be present on the banks of the Charles Monday to witness the regatta. It is a great opportunity to spend the glorious Fourth at the hub, and in addition to witnessing the boat race racing also see some big water ball, and the advantage will undoubtedly be taken by quite a number.

Private Workout For Jack Dempsey

Public Not Admitted to Witness Champion Going Through Stunts

Atlantic City, N. J., June 28.—Jack Dempsey ripped another page out of George Carpentier's training program today when he staged a private workout. He worked heavily for fifteen minutes in the old alpine shed, back of his camp, with only newspapermen and a few friends as spectators. Several hundred persons swarmed in the heat outside of the camp, hoping that the champion would change his mind and make an exhibition public, but the crinkle of the dollar bills in their pockets was no lure to Dempsey. The two doors at the main entrance were locked and chained, and guards shot through cracks in the doors that the champion would not work.

The newspapermen, however, refused to leave, as they did yesterday when Dempsey worked in secret, and became so persistent that Teddy Hayes, the champion's trainer, finally ordered the gates swung open to them.

After the strenuous high speed workout in secret yesterday, Dempsey began the process of lapping out this afternoon, and only boxed two rounds in addition to two rounds of bag punching. He also limbered up with some bending exercises on the floor of the ring, after the session with the gloves. The experts regarded Dempsey's boxing more favorably than they did when they saw him in action on Sunday. He boxed with more energy and "pep" throughout, and was hitting harder, except when he penned his sparring partners in a corner. Then he would content himself by cutting them around until they could break away and escape to the centre of the ring. Rumors were flying around Atlantic City that Dempsey had broken with his manager Kearns, and that Kearns had packed his baggage and departed for New York, and that Dempsey had persistently violated all instructions as regards training.

"There isn't a word of truth in them," Dempsey said tonight. "Kearns is in New York on business, and all of his baggage is still here. He'll be back tomorrow to prepare for our getaway to Jersey City. All the stories about a row and everything else are ridiculous."

Maritime Golf Entries Slow

Amherst, N. S., June 28.—Entries for the Maritime Golf Championships to be held in Amherst July 29-31 are coming in but slowly. However, Mr. H. M. Canfield, secretary-treasurer, is hardly expecting a rush of entries until a few days before the tournament. Woodstock and Riverdale are the only two clubs yet represented. The fact that the Amherst course has been lengthened and well trapped, will be a distinct acquisition to the game, as well as an inducement to the golfers. It is now the finest course in the Maritime Provinces, from a "sporty" viewpoint, having many natural hazards, with all the holes trapped.

SHAW INDULGES IN A SERIES OF UTOPIAN DREAMS

New Gospel of Creative Evolution Points Way to Millennium.

London, June 28.—A new gospel of longevity by George Bernard Shaw will be published tomorrow by Messrs. Constable. Its title "Back to Methuselah." It does not aim to be a complete bible, but only the beginning of one, that is to say, it is "a meta-biology, a descriptive power of the human tongue cannot say, this at least was the conclusion arrived at by one man who used his vocabulary to its limit to describe in a fitting manner what he thought of the individual who had incurred his righteous wrath.

"SPEED" LOST HIS LICENSE TAG

The meanness and cussedness of some people passes the degree beyond which it is not possible to describe. The incident which has just occurred in the case of "Speed" is a case in point. It all followed after "Speed's" tag was found to be missing.

Speed, who is known to those who are unable to appreciate his true worth as "Bum," is a brindle pup who makes it his daily task to patrol all the meat shops on Mill, Dock and Main streets. He also attends all the Montreal and Halifax trains and carefully scans the passengers coming out or going into the depot. Fires are "Speed's" pet hobby, and his arrival has been carefully timed. It is just after the motor chemical and a few seconds before the horse driven apparatus.

But to come back to the cussedness of some mortals. A new power wielding a mighty sceptre and sweeping all those who come under his ban into that thralldom, sprang into being this spring, the dog catcher. Friends of Speed realizing that his independence and roaming spirit would soon end by his falling into the toils of the dog catcher, clubbed together and bought him a license. This self appointed committee of two were returned soldier whose battalion speed had served with during the route marches while training here, and a huckster who has a hunch that Speed's tag is his most likely fare at the depot for him. The two got the license and attached the tag to Speed's collar and the brindle pup became possessed of the freedom of the city. And here's where the cussedness came in; some individual pinched the tag! And one dog lover has learned that even the most attentive vocabulary, covering subjects both sacred and profane, and its limitations when describing some people.

HEAD OF SECT WAS KILLED IN PISTOL BATTLE

Negro Religious Lender Runs Amuck and Wounds Three.

HELD POLICE AND FIREMEN AT BAY For Three Hours He Fought Behind Barricade in His Home.

Atlantic City, June 28.—"Dr." D. D. Murphy, negro leader of a religious sect known as the "Live and Never Die," was held at bay three hours barricaded on the third floor of a small house at 116 Division avenue, this afternoon. He was finally shot dead by Detective Frank McDowell. Two police officers and Elizabeth Chappella, 1177 Division avenue, negroes, were wounded by the man.

The police, assisted by two companies of firemen, poured bullets and streams of water into the small frame building, while a crowd of 1000 blocked Arctic and Baltic avenues to see the battle. Detective McDowell, accompanied by Detectives Eckstein and Parley, edged their way into the ground floor of the house.

Creeping up the stairs, McDowell and the body of Murphy, with a smoking revolver still clamped in his hand, fell down the steps into his arms. He had been hit in the mouth, the bullet coming out the back of his head.

Mrs. Chappella was struck by a bullet in the back and is in a serious condition in the hospital. She was standing in front of the house when Murphy fired several shots at a policeman standing near her. Frank Gaines, a policeman, had four bullet holes in his clothes, but escaped without serious scratch, while Charles Thorogood, another policeman, received a slight wound on the hand.

After waiting a few minutes for the magistrate to appear, Murphy suddenly jumped to his feet, drew a revolver from his pocket and backed slowly out of the door, covering Allen with his fire. Reaching the street, he continued to back for nearly a square until he reached his home. He was followed by Allen and a crowd.

Allen, after seeing his captive disappear in his home, called the aid of Police Captain Gaines. Together with Joseph Ford, they went to the Division avenue house and entered. Gaines was in the back for nearly a square until he reached his home. He was followed by Allen and a crowd.

Religious Fight In South Africa

Refused to Evacuate Government Land and Many Killed in Battle.

Capetown, June 28.—A native religious sect which calls itself the "Israelites," under a "prophet" named Enoch, who refused to evacuate government land at Bulhoek, near Queenstown, Cape Colony, has been forcibly ejected, losing 171 killed and 126 wounded in a fight with mounted Cape police.

For some years past, the government had permitted the "Israelites" to celebrate "Passover" on a common but each year a growing number of pilgrims remained behind on what they called "holy ground" until a village of some 360 huts had sprang up. The sect forbade anybody to enter the village, or to recognize any authority except orders from "Jehovah, the God of Israel," as interpreted by Enoch the prophet.

The government some time ago endeavored to register the settlement but the police were obliged to withdraw bloodshed.

Final efforts by the Secretary for Native Affairs and others to induce the "Israelites" to withdraw failed. They steadfastly refused to go.

Finally a force of 800 mounted police moved from Queenstown to demand the surrender of the village. With shouts of "Jehovah says we must fight," 4,000 natives charged the police with swords and assegais, the women crying on the men with wild religious chants. The police let them come on until within 30 yards and then fired, with the result stated. Thereupon the prophet Enoch surrendered and the village was to be demolished.

The affair has caused some stir in the Cape House of Assembly. Premier Smuts declared that in view of the natives' obstinacy, there was no other way to make them understand that they must obey the law.

Farmers Vindicated Declares The Victor

Claims Success Shows Canadians Want a Democratic Government.

Medicine Hat, June 28.—The overwhelming victory which has been won is a vindication of the plan of democratic action for which the organized farmers stand, said Robert Gardner, the successful candidate in yesterday's by-election. Contrasting, he said: "It is a victory for the principles of our organization which have been endorsed in an unmistakable way, not only by our own members but also by another organized democratic group and many detached voters who are in close sympathy with our policy and programme. The contest has been fought out in so far as we are concerned, upon clearly defined issues of principle. The result is a manifestation of the desire of the people for the establishment of a democratic and truly democratic government. It demonstrates the possibility of progressive groups cooperating effectively."

Nothing To Say. "The result speaks for itself," said Col. Nelson Spencer, when asked for a statement after the returns received showed that Robert Gardner, Progressive candidate, would be elected by a sweeping majority.

Open Big School

quarters of the Bethel Bible school, an educational institution now conducted at Spencer, Mass., by Rev. E. W. Kenyon, an evangelist who has conducted a number of campaigns in Fredericton and elsewhere in the Maritime Provinces.

Frank D. Swin, ex-M. L. A. of Doaktown, and Havelock Sansom, of Campbellton, who has lately been actively belittled, who has lately been identified with Mr. Kenyon's work, have gone to St. John, where they expect to conclude arrangements for the purchase of the property.

Big Repair Scheme. Inasmuch as the buildings are out of repair and will need a considerable amount of work, it is said, that $100,000 will be necessary to establish the new institution.

Mr. Sansom said that he had found opposition to this plan being recruited by the educational board on the ground that it meant sending the young people out of Canada, and inasmuch as his evangelistic activities have been confined largely to the Maritime Provinces in recent years, it has been decided to establish his school here, and the opportunities offered at St. Martins were found to be ideal. It will be an industrial school, as Mr. Spencer, Mass., where students attending will have an opportunity to work at various kinds of employment to provide for their tuition and board.
