POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, Oct. 3—Mr. F. A. Dustan, of St. Stephen, was in town last week for a short visit among his friends, and was the guest of Mrs. T. T. Odell. Since then he has gone to Boston, and has entered Harvard Medical College.

Mrs. C. M. Gove has returned from St. John, after a few days pleasantly spent there.

Mr. Frank G. Stoop, who has been critically ill for the last three weeks, is improving under the skilful treatment of Dr. Harry Gove.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Coakley are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby girl in their home.

A social was held at the Methodist parsonage on Thursday evening last, in honor of Miss A. Allen, who is very highly esteemed by many friends. Conversation and music were enjoyed by the company, and light refreshments were served. A very pretty fern pot in Venetian ware was presented to Miss Allen by the Rev. W. Wilson Lodge.

Mr. Charles Richardson, formerly principal of the intermediate schools here, left by train for Calgary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheehan and child returned to Montreal on Thursday last. Mr. Sheehan is much improved in health.

Mrs. Payne, of Yokohama, Japan, closed her summer cottage on Thursday last and left by train that evening with her daughter and governess for her home.

Messrs. Archie Shirley, Percy Rigby, George Cockburn, Royden Smith and Fraser Armstrong went to Fredericton on Friday last to enter the U. N. B. A number of their friends went to the station and made their going away very pleasant.

The teachers of the public schools returned on Saturday from St. Stephen. The Charlotte County Institute held there was largely attended, and the papers read were full of instruction.

A harvest thanksgiving service was held in All Saints church on Sunday. The pulpit, reading desk, choir stalls, chancel rail, and font were tastefully trimmed with cut flowers, autumn foliage, berries and grain. Potted plants, fruit and vegetables were also used in the decorations. The rector, Rev. R. J. Langford, delivered an impressive sermon in keeping with the day. Appropriate music by the choir, under the leadership of Miss May Morris, added to the service. Mrs. G. Harold Stickney presided at the organ with her usual good taste and ability. The collections for the day were in aid of the St. Stephen Hospital fund.

Miss Brennan and Miss E. Brennan left on Monday night's train for Elizabeth (N. J.), having had a very pleasant visit here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. P. Dustan has returned to St. Stephen after a short visit here with her daughter, Mrs. T. T. Odell.

Mrs. Bert Rigby has been receiving callers at her new home in William Henry street.

Mrs. William Morrison went to Bocabec to remain with her brother, Mr. James Bell. Having been a resident for a number of years, she will be greatly missed.

Miss Minnie and Miss Nellie Gardiner took Monday's train for Montreal, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Nesbitt for the winter months.

The Misses MacAfee, of Lorneville, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Gardiner lately, left by boat Tuesday morning for their home, much pleased with their visit.

Mr. Will Waycott was warmly welcomed by his many friends on his arrival here by train on Monday from Seattle (Wash.). Mrs. Waycott accompanied him. They left Tuesday evening for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Forster closed their home on Monday, and took train for Norristown (Pa.) Mr. Forster's health improves. Miss Gladys, their daughter, took the trip with them.

R. B. Clarke, M. A. I., left by train on Thursday for Hamilton (Ont.), after enjoying a delightful visit to his mother, Mrs. Jennie Clarke, and uncle, Mayor Snodgrass.

Miss Laura Shaw and Miss Margaret Kerr spent Sunday in town with their parents.

A wedding of much interest took place at Winnipeg on Wednesday, Sept. 25, when Miss Claudine Maloney, third daughter of Captain John T. Maloney, was united in marriage to Mr. T. R. Dunn, of Winnipeg. The bride, who spent her childhood days in St. Andrews, was a great favorite, and added much to social circles, being a musician and possessing a voice of culture and rare compass. All here wish the bride and groom a happy and prosperous life.

GRAND FALLS.

Grand Falls, Oct. 4—Mr. Alex. Cox, Presque Isle, spent Wednesday and Thursday in town, guest of H. W. Taylor.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly departed on Tuesday for Bangor on a visit.

Mrs. G. M. Taylor is on an extended trip to Houlton and Bangor.

Miss T. L. Mulherrin is on a trip to St. John, Houlton and Woodstock.

Miss Helen Hallett, St. John, and Mr. A. R. Hallett, St. Leonards, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Ed. Armstrong spent Sunday in town, guest of Mrs. A. R. Hallett.

Miss Grace West is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. Kirkpatrick, at Fort Fairfield.

Miss Estella Curless returned Tuesday from a trip to Fort Fairfield (Me.)

Miss Myra Wilson has returned home from a visit to St. Leonards and Edmundston.

Mayor and Mrs. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. J. R. Graham and master John Graham expect to leave on a trip to New York on Monday.

Mrs. J. L. White leaves today for a visit to Centreville.

Miss Lila McVey and Miss J. D. Douglas left for St. Stephen on Monday.

BATHURST.

Bathurst, N. B., Oct. 3.—Mrs. W. F. Pepper has gone to Portland (Me.), where she will visit friends.

Miss Margaret McKendy visited her home in Douglastown last week.

Miss Russel is making a visit to her aunt, Mrs. K. Cinnamond.

Mrs. O. Fenwick is visiting friends in Boston.

Mrs. R. D. Southwood went during the week to Portland (Me.) to spend some weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. H. A. Melanson is making a visit to her home people in Moncton.

Mr. Herbert Hudson came on Saturday morning from Quebec and remained in town until Tuesday night with friends.

Mr. P. H. Melvin and his daughter, Miss Bourgeois, went this week to Montreal, where they will spend some weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fenwick are visiting with friends in Sussex.

Mr. James Buttimer's many friends are sorry to learn of his illness and trust that he may soon completely recover.

Mr. H. White, who was ill for some days last week, is quite better.

Mons. Wm. Varrily spent several days of this week in St. John, returning home on Wednesday night.

Mrs. W. Napier, of Campbellton, is a guest of Mrs. S. Napier.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Sutherland, of Seattle, who spent a few weeks with Mr. Sutherland's home people here, returned to their home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, of St. John, after a few weeks' visit to Mrs. F. J. Gatain, returned on Tuesday to their home.

Mrs. Murchie, who has been making a stay with her mother, Mrs. Grant, returned last week to her home in Vancouver (B. C.)

Mrs. L. Turner, of Tracadie, spent a few days with relatives in town this week.

Mr. P. J. Veniot, collector of customs, met with a very painful accident and one which might have been serious, on Thursday morning. In going up to the roof of his house, where he had some workmen employed repairing, he slipped from a loose ladder and fell a considerable distance to the ground, sustaining slight injuries. Mr. Veniot is resting well today, and his many friends trust that his recovery will be a rapid one.

Bishop McDonald, of Newfoundland, was a visitor at the presbytery here this week.

Miss Robertson, of Richibucto, is visiting her friend, Miss Payne, this week.

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, Oct. 3—A very delightful bridge party was given by Miss Melba Johnson at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Nelson, on Saturday afternoon, from 3 until 6 o'clock, prior to her departure to her home in Poukapoag (Mass.) The party was also given for the pleasure of Miss Emma Lord and Miss Jennie Belenore. The prize, a dozen American Beauty roses, was won by Miss Ethel Sullivan. The other guests were Mrs. W. H. McDonald, Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. Herbert Dudley, Mrs. Guy Buxton, Misses Ethel McAllister, Alma Sullivan, Margaret Black, Eva Fraser, Ethel Sullivan, Queenie Neill, Emma Boardman, Sadie McCullough, Christine Whidden and Grace Haycock.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Adam will leave at an early date for their new home in Hamilton (Ont.) They will be greatly missed among their circle of friends, especially at the golf links and tennis court, as they are both devotees of these fascinating pastimes.

Miss Queenie Neill left today for Boston, where she will spend the winter months.

Miss Jessie Whitlock is visiting friends in Truro (N. S.), this week.

Miss Katherine Newnham, who has been visiting in Canso (N. S.) her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. S. Newnham, for the past year, is expected to arrive home on Friday and will be most cordially welcomed by her friends.

Miss Edith MacFarlane is visiting friends in Fredericton and vicinity.

Mr. Thomas Irvine has concluded a pleasant visit in St. Stephen and left on Saturday evening for Portland (Me.), en route to his home in Denver (Col.)

The many friends of Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette, who is now in Boston, will be pleased to know she has made a change in her plans and will visit St. Stephen at an early date and will be the guest of Mrs. Hazen Grimmer during her stay.

Mrs. R. D. Ross and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer will visit Bangor to attend the Maine festival concerts.

Miss Winifred Maloney, of St. Andrews, has been visiting in St. Stephen.

Mrs. W. C. Goucher and her sister, Miss Rettie, of Yarmouth (N. S.), are now visiting friends in Rochester, New York state.

Mrs. John D. Chipman has returned from Charlottetown (P. E. I.)

Mrs. Hume D. Bates and Master Jerome Bates expect to leave next Monday for Boston en route to Vermilion (S. D.)

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham and Rev. J. Abbot Winfield are absent in St. John attending the meetings of the C. of E. synod.

Mrs. James G. Stevens is in Chatham, the guest of the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Tweedie.

Mr. Fred Goucher has gone to Wolfville (N. S.) to resume his studies and to begin his duties as assistant teacher in one of the departments at the seminary.

Hon. George A. Curran and Mrs. Curran have closed their cottage at Red Beach and returned to their town house in Calais.

Mr. Frank A. Dustan has severed his connection with the St. Stephen Bank, and has gone to Cambridge (Mass.), and entered upon a medical course at Harvard College.

Wedding bells rang merrily from the Congregational church, Calais, today at high noon, when Miss Carrie Belle Boardman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Quincy Boardman, was united in marriage to Mr. Herbert Cox, of Eastern Pennsylvania, by the pastor, Rev. Charles G. McCully. The church was prettily adorned with ferns and flowers for the occasion. Shortly before high noon the strains of the organ sounded through the church, and the groom, accompanied by the ushers, came up the aisle and took a position near the prayer desk to await his bride. In a few minutes the matron of honor, Mrs. Hill, the eldest sister of the bride, appeared; then the bride, walking alone and looking very lovely in a beautiful bridal costume of cream liberty satin, richly trimmed with point duchesse lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. She was followed by her bridesmaids, her sisters, Misses Florence and Emma Boardman, who were daintily attired in gowns of white Swiss mull over taffeta silk and large white picture hats, with white plumes. There was no groomsman. After the ceremony a wedding dejeuner was served at the home of the bride's parents on Lafayette street. In the afternoon at 5 o'clock a reception was held, which lasted two hours. The wedding gifts were extremely handsome and unique. Many came from friends of the bride and groom in New York and Pennsylvania. In the evening the happy pair left in the Washington County train for a wedding journey to last several weeks before going to their home in Easton (Penn.)

The Golf Club tournament will be held on Friday. Mrs. J. Edwin Ganong has presented a handsome silver cup to be given as a trophy to the winner.

Mrs. Elmer Maxwell left on Tuesday for Boston, where she will spend a fortnight.

The funeral of the late Mr. Roy Cameron Maxwell, whose sad death occurred so suddenly in St. John last week, took place on Friday at noon immediately after the arrival of the C. P. R. train. Rev. J. Abbot Winfield, rector of Trinity church, conducted the services. Mr. Maxwell was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maxwell. He was born at Tower Hill, but spent his early life in St. Stephen. The pall-bearers were the boyhood friends of the deceased—Messrs. Fred E. Murchie, William A. Mills, Hill M. Grimmer and Fred B. Hill. The interment was in the Maxwell lot in the rural cemetery. The floral tributes sent by friends from Fredericton and also by home friends were very beautiful. Much sympathy is expressed for the family of deceased and especially for Mrs. Maxwell in her sorrow and bereavement.

HAMPTON.

Hampton, Kings county, Oct. 2—Mrs. James Pettingell, of Gondola Point, was a visitor here on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin K. MacNeal and Mr. and Mrs. C. MacNeal, of Boston, returned home from their summer outing on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strain, of St. John, who with their son, Ronald, have spent the summer months at Riverview Hotel, left for home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Doherty, who live at the junction of the Bridge and Norton Roads, lost their little daughter, Alice, aged two years, on Monday, and she was buried today at 1 o'clock in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Logue, of the village, also lost a young daughter in St. John on Monday, and the body was brought here for interment on Tuesday.

Messrs. Milton Dunn and Albert Lindsay, of Hampton Village, went to Halifax (N. S.), on Saturday last.

Mr. R. G. Flewelling, accompanied his daughters, the Misses Grace and Kathleen, to Halifax, on Saturday last, the latter being a pupil in the school for the deaf.

Mrs. E. G. Evans and the younger members of her family returned home from the season's outing at their summer residence, McLaren's Beach, Lancaster, on Friday last.

The Rev. Millege Walker and his family have left their summer home at Lakeside for Shelton (Conn.), where they reside during the winter months.

Mrs. James H. McAvity closed up her summer home today and returned to St. John whither the family had preceded her.

Mr. D. J. and Mrs. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. James Moriarty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgins, the Misses Helen and Julia Cowan, Miss Kit Gilchrist, Mrs. Duffy and Mrs. Holly, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, the Messrs. J. E. and Alfred Cowan and Mr. W. A. Brydone, all came from the city to attend the funeral of Mrs. Charles W. Cowan, late of Midway Villa, on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. H. Campbell, of Norwich (Conn.), and Miss G. Campbell, of Norton, were visitors at Hampton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Evans, and daughter, of Minto, Queens county, spent the week end at the home of his parents, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Evans, in Everett street, Hampton Station.

The Rev. E. Evans, D. D., who has been seriously ill since his return from his recent trip to Toronto, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Mr. Wardroper, common clerk of the city of St. John, and Mrs. Wardroper, were week end guests at Linden Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. James William Bailey, of Boston, are guests of Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Botsford, at her home at the Baptist parsonage, Church Hill, Hampton Station.

The Misses Beatrice and Lillian Smith, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. Newton Smith, left for St John and Holderville on Saturday, and on Monday proceeded to Fredericton and entered the University of New Brunswick, where Miss Lillian has already spent two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arscott, their son, and Miss Sibley, a guest, went on a visit to Halifax on Thursday last.

Mrs. William Langstroth returned to her home in Everett street last week, after a prolonged visit at Woodstock.

Mrs. Gilford Flewelling, of Hampton Village, left on Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Glover, wife of the Rev. B. Glover, at Estevan, British Columbia.

Mr. J. Wm. Barnes went to Halifax on Tuesday for a few days outing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. March, who had been spending a week or ten days at Fredericton, returned home on Wednesday last.

Miss Louise Saunders, of Boston, came here on Monday and went out to St. Martins, on a visit to friends.

Miss Louise Stewart, professional nurse of Montreal, is enjoying a much needed rest at the summer home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stewart, Rectory Lane, Lakeside.

Dr. Percy H. Warneford left yesterday to place his eldest son Kemyss, in a sanatarium at Kentville (N. S.), with the hope, in which all his friends join, that the young man may be speedily restored to full and perfect health.

Master Harry Evans came home today from Sackville Academy.

AMHERST.

Amherst, N. S., Oct. 3—Mr. Jas. Simpson left on Friday for Connecticut, called there by the serious illness of his sister.

Miss Mary Irvine has been attending the exhibition at Halifax.

Miss Bessie Currey is visiting in Dartmouth and Halifax.

Frank Freeman left last week on a visit to the north west.

Judge Patterson has returned to his home in New Glasgow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bishop are attending the exhibition at Halifax.

W. N. Garrett has returned from a visit to his home in Ohio.

Mrs. Robert Davison has returned to her home in Wallace.

Garnet Chapman is on a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. A. W. Moffatt, Miss Dora and Master L. J., left on Saturday for a trip to Boston (Mass.)

Harry R. Thompson has returned from Liverpool (N. S.)

Miss Naomi Mason is spending a month with friends in Watertown, New York, and Baltimore.

Miss Mary McDonald is home from a visit to Pictou county.

Mrs. Fred Black is visiting in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCabe went to Hantsport on Saturday.

Miss Smith, of Halifax, has been the guest of Mrs. Harvey Hewson for a few days.

Mrs. D. C. Allen left on Saturday for Charlottetown (P. E. I.) She was accompanied from Shediac by Madame Harrison.

Mrs. C. J. Willis, formerly of Amherst, but now of Summerside, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Atherton, Havelock street.

The marriage took place Monday morning at 6.30, in St. Charles R. C. church, of Miss Lydia Bradshaw, daughter of the late P. Bradshaw, of this town, and Mr. Wm. White, of Fort Lawrence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Mihan, assisted by Rev. Father Hamilton of Halifax. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of broadcloth, with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a trip to Montreal. On their return they will reside in Fort Lawrence.

Another marriage was solemnized on Monday morning at the residence of Mayor and Mrs. T. P. Lowther, when their adopted son, Alfred Atwood, was united to Miss Telatha Bell Vanemher. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Wood, pastor of St. Stephens church.

Miss Alice Dawney has returned from Halifax.

Rev. Dr. Rogers was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pugsley last week.

Carl Logan has returned from a short trip to Halifax.

Messrs. Thos. and Howard Allan of Boston, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Lewis B. Allan.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Curry are visiting Sheet Harbor in their Ford runabout.

Miss Lillian Chapman, of Port Elgin, is visiting her cousin, Miss Winnie Murray.

A. A. Barker and R. B. H. Davison have returned from a shooting trip to Jerry Island.

Miss Sadie Holmes, of Linden, has been visiting friends in town.

Miss Inez Scribner of Painsec Junction and the Misses Myrtle and Muriel Thomas of Dorchester, were the guests of Mrs. H. A. Scribner this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald are being congratulated on the arrival of a daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Crocker and son of Middleton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Calhoun, Church street.

Miss Mary Denoon, of Westville, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthurs over Sunday.

H. J. Logan left on Monday for Ottawa.

Miss Edith Lawson is visiting her uncle, Rev. G. A. Lawson, Halifax (N. S.)

Mr. Warren Christie is on a trip to Montreal.

Rev. Geo. Wood is attending the meeting of the synod at Halifax this week.

M. J. Walsh is on an extended visit to Boston and neighboring cities.

Mrs. G. K. McKeen has returned from a visit to her daughter, Miss Amy, in Boston. Master Harold McKeen is home from Tatamagouche, where he has been spending the summer.

Herbert Biden, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Biden, Rupert street, returned home on Friday, after a thirteen years' absence in South Africa.

Miss Helen Christie left Tuesday for Wolfville, where she will enter upon a course of study at Acadia University.

Mrs. Dixon Wood and young daughter, of Oxford (N. S.), are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Murray.

Miss Lila Therne, of Boston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elias White, Albion street. She will leave on Friday for her home in Havelock (N. B.), accompanied by her sister.

Rev. D. A. Steele has returned from a visit to St. John.

The marriage took place Wednesday morning at Rexton, Kent county (N. B.), of David Mitchell, manager of the Maritime Railway, Coal & Power Company, of Chignecto, to Mrs. T. R. Black, widow of Senator Black. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present. The happy couple left on an extended wedding trip to Montreal and New York.

J. J. King, of St. John's (Nfld.), has accepted a position with A. J. Crease, druggist.

The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride in Gottinger street, Halifax, Tuesday afternoon, of Miss Addie Jonah, formerly of Amherst, to George R. Fowler, of the Robb Engineering Company. Rev. Mr. Jenner tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler have arrived in Amherst, where they will in future reside.

The mayor and the town council presented Councillor C. T. Hillson with some valuable pieces of cut glass on the occasion of his recent marriage. Mr. Hillson highly appreciated the compliment and the good feeling of his brother councillors.

Mrs. Robert Pugsley and Miss Mabel Pugsley are on a short trip to St. John.

D. W. Robb, accompanied by his niece, Miss Geraldine Chapman, left for New York on Tuesday. Miss Chapman intends entering a hospital in that city to study nursing.

Miss Margaret Purdy, daughter of J. E. Purdy, returned to New York on Monday via Montreal.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Helena Alice Black and Perley G. Pearson, to take place in the Methodist church here on the 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parker are spending the week in Halifax.

Mayor and Mrs. T. P. Lowther spent Sunday in River Hebert (N. S.)

Mr. H. C. Hapgood has been transferred from Amherst to Moncton, where he will take the place of teller in the Royal Bank of Canada there.

Mrs. J. H. McIver and two children are visiting in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Tryder, of Boston, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Glen.

Miss Addie Porter has returned from Halifax.

Mrs. Ella Carter has returned from a visit to Chatham.

Miss Grace Coates is visiting in Falmouth (N. S.)

Mrs. C. A. Black and Mrs. Dunlap left today for Boston, where they will spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rodger have returned from their wedding trip to Montreal, New York and other American cities.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crossman expect to leave next week on an extended trip to the west.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Christ church, Saturday afternoon, when Miss Harriet Emma, daughter of John Bowser, Clifford street, and John Foster, late of Leeds (Eng.), were united in the bonds of matrimony. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue suit, with hat to match. Rev. A. J. Cresswell officiated at the ceremony in the presence of a number of the immediate relatives and friends.

C. L. Purdy, of the Robb Engineering Company, has gone to Sayabec, Quebec, on business for the company.

PARRSBORO.

Parrsboro, Oct. 4—Miss Winnie Cove, of Amherst, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Hayes.

Mrs. Chas. Harris, of Halifax, is visiting relatives in town.

Mr. J. R. Cowans spent last week in Montreal.

Mr. Walter Fullerton arrived from Edmonton on Saturday after an absence of two years.

Captain D. W. Mahoney returned to New Mills (N. B.), on Saturday. His daughter, Miss Edna Mahoney, accompanied him.

Miss Emma Fullerton and Miss Minnie Thompson have gone to Sackville to attend Mt. Allison Seminary.

Miss Winnie Durant entertained a number of young ladies on Monday evening in honor of Miss Gertrude Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Outlet have returned from Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Walsh, who were in town for a few days, returned to Pugwash on Monday, accompanied by Mrs. James D. Gillespie.

Mrs. A. Higgins, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. Woodworth, returned to Cambridge on Tuesday.

Miss Julia Brown is spending her vacation in Boston.

Mrs. D. S. Howard and Mrs. H. A. Tucker have returned from Halifax.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Wodill, of Melrose (Mass.), sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter.

Among those who attended the Halifax exhibition this week were Messrs. H. C. Gillespie, W. B. Mahoney, Douglas King, Karl Fraser and Jack Tucker.

Miss Winifred Gillespie left on Monday for Brooklyn (N. Y.), where she has accepted a position as governess.

Mrs. Edwards, who spent the summer at Hotel Cumberland, has gone to Southampton to remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tucker have taken the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Aherne celebrated their golden wedding on Tuesday.

Mr. Lloyd Hargreaves, of Springhill, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Varley B. Fullerton left on Monday to resume his law studies at Harvard.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Rand entertained a number of their married friends on Friday evening, the occasion being the fourteenth anniversary of their marriage.

The marriage of Miss Laura Minahan to Mr. James Farrell took place at St. Bridget's church on Monday morning, the ceremony being performed by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Foley. The beautiful decorations which adorned the church last week for the reception of the archbishop were left undisturbed for the occasion. The bride looked very pretty in a handsome tailor-made costume of brown broadcloth with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Johanna Minahan, who wore a tailor-made costume of green broadcloth. Mr. John Galvin acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, after partaking of a dainty wedding breakfast at Hotel Evangeline, left on the morning train for a trip to Halifax. On their return the happy couple will reside in Parrsboro.

At 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning the residence of Mr. W. J. Gibson was the scene of a very pretty although quiet wedding, the principals being his eldest daughter, Gertrude Viola, and Captain Claude Hilton Durant, eldest son of Captain W. F. Durant. Rev. D. K. Grant, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. Both young people enjoy great popularity and much interest was felt by their friends in their approaching marriage. The bride, who was unattended, presented a charming appearance in a gown of cream eolienne with chiffon trimmings. She carried a bouquet of cream roses. Immediately after the wedding breakfast, to which only the near relatives of both families were invited, the happy couple left for a trip to Halifax and Boston. They will return to Parrsboro before leaving for Vera Cruz, Mexico, where Captain Durant has made his home for the past few years. Among the many valuable and useful presents was a purse of gold from St. James' congregation, of which the bride was organist.

SHEDIAC.

Shediac, N. B., Oct. 3—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russel have returned home from a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. J. D. B. Talbot and little sons were the guests for a few days this week of Mrs. D. S. Harper, "Sunny Brae."

Miss Evelyn Gilbert, of Boston, was in Shediac last week, spending a short while with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. Temple Doyle, who have been spending the summer in town, left on Monday to spend the week in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dustan, of Moncton, were in Shediac for a short while last week, the guests of Rev. W. and Mrs. Penna, Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. Chas. Harper spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith, of Moncton.

Mrs. R. C. Tait, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Hilda and Minnie, and son, Master Allen, returned on Thursday from a trip to Nova Scotia.

Mr. Chas. Roberts left on Saturday of last week on a trip to Boston and the southern states.

Mrs. Esterbrooks, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russel during the past month, left on Saturday of last week for her home in Boston.

On Thursday evening of last week Miss Evans at her home, Main street, very pleasantly entertained a number of her lady friends at fancy work. Miss Evans had as aides her sister, Miss Margaret, and niece, Miss Lena Tait. The guests present were: Mrs. J. Newman, Mrs. Edwin Freeze, Mrs. H. B. Steeves, Mrs. H. W. Murray, Mrs. G. Ross, Mrs. Jas. White, Miss Fannie Lyons (Moncton), Miss Webster, Miss Harper, Mrs. S. C. Charters, Miss Charters, the Misses Robidoux, Mrs. J. D. Talbot (Hamilton, Bermuda), Miss Tait, the Misses Evans, Mrs. Easterbrooks (Boston), Miss Burnyeat.

On Friday afternoon Miss Webster, at her charming home, "Riverside," was hostess at a delightful little drawing room tea, when a number of her lady friends were present. Mrs. Ernest Smith poured tea, while Miss Margaret Evans assisted Miss Webster in the serving. Among the guests were: Mrs. Jas. White, Miss Lyons, Mrs. G. Ross, Mrs. H. B. Steeves, Mrs. H. W. Murray, Mrs. Jas. McQueen, Mrs. A. J. Webster, Mrs. G. M. Blakney, Mrs. Edwin Freeze, Mrs. A. J. Tait.

Mrs. Thos. Milne, accompanied by her son, Master Bowen, returned to Sackville on Monday of this week from a visit to friends in town.

Mr. Frank Dickie, who has been attending Wolfville for the past two years, left last week to resume his studies at that college, after the summer months spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickie, Main street east.

Mrs. Edward Smith returned this week from a visit with friends in Dorchester.

Mrs. Fred. McFadzen and little daughter Ethel returned to their home in St. John on Friday of last week, after spending a fortnight in town the guest of Mrs. J. McFadzen, at the corner.

Mrs. J. Beal and Mrs. William Beal, who have been visiting for some weeks with friends in Sackville, have returned home to Shediac Cape.

Mrs. Hall, of Dorchester, was the guest recently of Mrs. A. F. Burt, at the rectory, Shediac Cape.

Mr. William Atkinson, of Sydney, was the guest this week of his mother, Mrs. W. Atkinson.

Mr. G. M. Blakney arrived in Shediac on Saturday of last week after enjoying a most successful moose hunt in the north of the province. Mr. Blakney left on Wednesday of this week to remain for a short time at his home in Petitcodiac before returning to Cambridge (Mass.)

Miss Mabel Frier, accompanied by her brother, Master Leslie, spent last week with friends in Halifax.

Mrs. E. A. Smith and Miss Webster were in Moncton on Saturday last.

Mr. Lillishore, of Moncton, was in town for over Sunday, the guest of Rev. I. and Mrs. Howie, Calder street.

Mrs. Thomas Simpson has returned home from a visit to friends in Albert county.

Mrs. Joseph Moore will leave this week on a visit to friends in Campbellton. Before returning home Mrs. Moore will be joined by Mr. Moore, and proceed on a trip to Montreal.

Miss May Adams, of New York, has been visiting in Shediac, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Gallagher, Main street east.

On Friday evening of last week Mrs. George Ross, at her home, Main street east, entertained a number of her friends very enjoyably at a ladies' fancy work. Among the guests invited were Mrs. Thos. Gallagher, Miss Adams (New York), the Misses Robidoux, Mrs. J. D. B. Talbot (Bermuda), the Misess Harper, Mrs. H. B. Steeves, the Misses Lawton, Mrs. E. G. Coombs, Mrs. J. Newman, Mrs. H. W. Murray, Mrs. A. J. Webster, the Misses Evans, Miss Webster, Mrs. Eric Robidoux.

Mrs. Tweedie, of Newcastle, and Mrs. Hickson, of New Bandon, were the guests for a short time this week of Mrs. W. B. Deacon, Main street, upon their return from a visit to friends on P. E. Island.

Mrs. H. W. Murray, of Shediac West, entertained a few of her lady friends at tea on Saturday of last week.

Mr. J. A. Murray's friends are pleased to know that he is able to be out again after his illness of typhoid.

Miss Bertha Bateman, of Shediac Cape has been visiting friends in Hartland.

Mrs. F. Smith, of Moncton, was in town recently for a short while.

Miss Ethel Wilbur, student nurse, who has been spending a fortnight's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wilbur, Shediac Cape, returned this week to her studies at Worcester Hospital, Massachusetts.

Mr. Garnet Newman, who has been at his home, the old homestead, Shediac Cape, during the summer months, with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. Newman, returned last week to Amherst.

Mr. Hilton Pitt, of Hamilton, Bermuda, was in Shediac on Monday of this week.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson, in company with Hon. A. B. Copp, of Sackville, visited town on Sunday last.

Miss Jennie Webster entertained a few friends at tea on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair and family have returned to Moncton after spending the summer months at their cottage, Point du Chene.

Mr. E. H. Allen visited St. John during the week.

Mrs. G. L. Kinnear is spending a few days at Sunny Brae, the guest of Mrs. D. S. Harper.

Senator Poirier paid a short visit to Newcastle during the week.

Mrs. Rideout and little girl have returned to Boston after spending the summer months in town at the home of Mrs. Thos. Gay.

ANDOVER

Andover, Oct. 3.—Miss Bessie Kilburn and Miss Muriel Kupkey are visiting friends at Cabano.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy, St. John, were the guests of Mr. Duffy's sister, Mrs. Martin Watson, Perth, last week.

Miss Dewaare, of Waterville, Carleton county, is visiting her friend, Miss Lottie Sloat.

Mrs. Carter and daughter, Millicent, left on Tuesday for Norfolk, Virginia, to remain some months.

Mr. Charles Stevens, brakeman on the B. & A., and Mr. Frank Stevens are spending a few days at their home.

Mr. Thomas Bedell arrived on Thursday and is the guest of his father-in-law, Jas. Tibbitts.

Mr. Burns, student at Pine Hill, Halifax, who has been in charge of the Presbyterian church here for the summer, leaves on Friday to resume his college work.

Mr. Douglas Smith left on Saturday for Fredericton.

Mrs. Jane Irvin and son, Rupert, also Mrs. Kinney, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Beveridge on Sunday.

Mr. Alfred Stevens, whose barn was destroyed by fire some weeks ago, had a barn raising on Saturday. Nearly forty men were present and a barn 40x80 feet was put up and partly boarded in. The ladies of the village kindly provided the refreshments, dinner being served on the lawn in front of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNair, of Arthurett, were in town on Monday. They contemplate moving to Andover for the winter if a suitable rent can be found.

Mr. Fred Baird returned to Fredericton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoyt went to Clair on Monday to stay some weeks.

Mr. Manual, from Plaster Rock, was the guest of Mr. Burns on Tuesday.

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, Oct. 2—As a continuation of last week's festivities in honor of Miss Haliburton Ogden, Mrs. Josiah Wood entertained on Thursday evening at her beautiful residence, Stonehurst, from 5 until 7. During the evening the bride-to-be was showered with pins of every form and variety, from huge safety pins to dainty little hat pins and brooches. Mrs. Wood was assisted in serving by Miss Lily and Violet Richardson, Miss Fannie Harris, Miss Gretchen Allison and Miss Elizabeth McLeod. The invited guests were Mrs. Secord, Mrs. T. Murray, Mrs. Fred Allison, Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, Mrs. Stephen Thorne (St. John), Mrs. C. F. McCready, Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mrs. F. Sumner, Mrs. Frank Black, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. A. V. Smith (Halifax), Miss Lila Estabrooks, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss Greta Ogden, Miss Emma Trueman, Miss Elizabeth McLeod, Miss Annie Sprague, Miss Cogswell, Miss Fannie Harris, Mrs. H. C. Read and Miss Hilton-Greene, Albert county.

The same evening Mrs. A. C. Smith entertained informally from 7 until 10. Among the invited guests were the guest of honor, Miss Ogden, Miss Greta Ogden, Miss Nora Wiggins, Miss Minnie Estabrooks, Miss Ethel Ayer, Mrs. Frank Black, Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mrs. F. Sumner, Mrs. N. E. Nichol, Mrs. Fred Rainnie, Mrs. A. G. Putnam, Mrs. A. V. Smith and Mrs. T. Murray.

On Friday evening Mrs. J. Baird, Mrs. W. Campbell and Miss T. Smith very pleasantly entertained their friends to a supper given in honor of Miss Ogden. This merry party were taken in the steam launch up to Camp de Foye at the head of Silver Lake and after enjoying a duck supper and a royal good time, returned home about 10 o'clock. The party is loud in its praise at the kindness and courtesy shown to them by the members of Camp de Foye.

Miss Tweedie was hostess on Saturday evening at a candy shower given in honor of the bride-elect. A number of friends were present and spent a delightful evening. The party included the guest of honor, Miss Ogden, Miss Ayer, of the conservatory staff, Miss Greta Ogden, Miss Cogswell, Mrs. Calkin, Mrs. Borden, Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mrs. F. Sumner, Mrs. D. Allison, Mrs. H. C. Read, Miss Elizabeth McLeod and Miss Annie Sprague.

Mrs. N. E. Nichols, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Senator and Mrs. Wood, left on Tuesday for her home in Winnipeg, accompanied by Miss Haliburton Ogden. Shortly after Miss Ogden's arrival in Winnipeg she will be married to H. H. Parlee, a prominent barrister at Edmonton. Miss Ogden is a very popular young lady and her departure is regretted by a host of friends. Mrs. Wood accompanied Mrs. Nichols as far as St. John.

Mrs. Thos. Estabrooks left on Monday for Montreal, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Trueman, of Campbellton (N. B.), are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss E. M. Baskin, who has been spending her vacation with her parents in St. John, returned to Sackville last week and will take up her duties as head milliner at Geo. E. Ford's.

Mrs. Stephen Atkinson left last week for Newark (N. J.), where she will visit her daughter.

Mrs. A. G. Putnam is visiting her old home at Eldon (P. E. I.)

Mrs. Sherrard and her daughter, Georgie, of Moncton, were in town on Saturday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden.

Misses McQuarrie and Mayo, who have been spending a pleasant time with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, left last week for Boston.

Mr. S. E. Hayward, who has been doing pastoral work in Alberta, arrived home and is now attending Mt. Allison.

A wedding of much interest to many Sackville people took place recently, when Miss Estelle Cook, B. A., became the wife of Mr. W. Webster. The bride, who spent some time at Mt. Allison Ladies' College, has a host of friends who will join in wishing the bride and groom bon voyage on their journey through life.

Mrs. Fred White, of Bermuda, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. F. A. Harrison, left for her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fawcett very pleasantly entertained their friends at a party last evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fawcett, of San Jose (Cal.)

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Palmer, of Moncton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. George over Sunday.

Rev. F. C. Wiggins left on Monday to attend the Church of England synod in St. John, where he will be the guest of W. S. Fisher.

Miss Greta Ogden and Miss Annie Sprague accompanied Miss Haliburton Ogden as far as Moncton on Tuesday.

Frank A. Harrison left Monday for his home in Newark (N. J.) Mrs. Harrison and family will leave in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Turner returned the last of the week from a driving tour through Cumberland county.

Mrs. R. T. Anderson and children, accompanied by Miss Kate Ford, left Thursday for New York, where they will join Captain Anderson.

The Baptist church at Midgic was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday at 1 o'clock, when Mr. Harry Allaby, of Glace Bay (N. S.), was united in marriage to Miss Pauline Tait, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Tait, of Midgic. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. L. Steeves, of Middle Sackville. The bride was prettily attired in white silk and wore a veil. She was unattended. Miss Bertha Allaby, of Amherst, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. After the ceremony the guests drove to the home of the bride for luncheon. The wedding gifts were numerous and elegant, that from the groom being a handsome bracelet set with diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Allaby left by the C. P. R. for Truro, Halifax and other Nova Scotia towns and cities. They will reside at Glace Bay.

A few friends pleasantly surprised Mr. J. S. Lowerison, Mount Whatley, one evening last week, it being his seventieth birthday, and presented him with a handsome eight-day mantel clock, a gold chain and a rocker.

Mrs. D. Firth, of Campbellton, is the guest of Colonel and Mrs. Harper, Middle Sackville.

Miss Louise McMorrice, of Great Shemogue, and Mr. Garfield Read, of Bayfield, were united in marriage on Wednesday by Rev. J. S. Gregg at the Methodist parsonage at Baie Verte.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Melanson, who returned last week from their honeymoon trip, were serenaded by the band boys, who presented them with a handsome chair.

Mr. W. T. Wood and Raleigh Trites are attending Halifax exhibition.

Dr. and Mrs. Borden and the members of the Ladies' College faculty will receive their friends in Sackville today (Wednesday) from 4 until 6 and from until 9. Much pleasure is anticipated by those who are to be her guests, as Mrs. Borden gives very gay and pleasant entertainments.

Mr. W. Cahill, who has been ailing for some time, is reported better.

Rev. C. W. Wiggins, Thos. Murray and W. T. Wood will take part in the concert on the 11th, when Mrs. Harrison will sing.

Miss Greta Ogden and Miss Haliburton Ogden spent Sunday in Point de Bute, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLeod.

Harry L. McCready was in town over Sunday, the guest of his brother, A. W. McCready.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Thompson returned on Saturday from a delightful trip to P. E. Island.

TRURO.

Truro, Oct. 3.—Miss Lizzie Maie Logan and Mr. Henry T. Irvin, both of this town, were married on Wednesday of last week at the home of the former's father, Mr. John Logan. As the wedding march was played by Miss Louise Smith, the bridal party entered the prettily decorated parlor. The bride wore a gown of cream crepe de chene and was attended by her friend, Miss Margaret Musgrave, wearing white organdie. Mr. Hedley Murphy, of Hilden, was groomsman. The bride's traveling dress was of wine colored broadcloth with champagne trimmings.

On Wednesday, of last week, Miss Agnes D. Cock, daughter of Mr. Herbert Cock, was married to Mr. George Snook, son of Mr. Isaac Snook. The bride was gowned in point d'esprit over white taffeta, and wore a bridal veil. She was attended by Miss Daisy Hennesey, wearing white silk organdie. Miss Grace Mason, of Halifax, played the wedding march. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Snook left for a two-weeks' trip to the United States, and upon their return will reside in Truro.

Miss Ruth Onderkirk was married last week to Mr. Melville Caudle, at the home of the bride's father, which was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. F. B. McKenzie was "at home" to friends last week at the home of Mr. McKenzie's parents. She was assisted at the reception by Mrs. George Johnson. Tea was poured by Mrs. Herbert Smith, assisted by Miss Mary Snook.

Miss Jeanette May Douglass, daughter of Mr. Cyrus Douglass, of North River, was recently married at the home of her father to Mr. Robert G. Bell, of West New Annan. The bride wore a white albatross gown and carried a beautiful bouquet, and her traveling suit was of blue cloth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Asaph Whitman and Miss Eva Whitman played the wedding march.

A quiet wedding took place last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McLure, when their daughter, Annie, was married to Mr. Aubrey C. Bradley, of Princeport. The bride was unattended and was given away by her father. Miss Pushie, of Mulgrave, played the wedding march.

Mrs. Scott, returned missionary from China, was, last week, a guest with Mrs. William McCully and family.

Miss Bella Masters, of Kentville, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. E. Fitch.

Mrs. D. McIntosh and her niece, Miss Edith King, have left for a trip to Moncton and Montreal.

Mrs. Frank Dexter has had as her guests Misses Rose A. Young and Bessie M. Hutt, of Dartmouth.

Mrs. C. McLarren, of Port Clyde, Shelburne county, who has been visiting Truro relatives left on Tuesday for the parsonage, Musquodoboit, where she intends spending the winter with her son and his family.

Miss Martha Hennesey, of Port Hawkesbury (C. B.), arrived in Truro yesterday to spend the winter.

Mr. Allen Loughead, of Badeck, has been visiting in Truro.

Mrs. L. J. Walker, who has been in Sackville visiting friends, has now returned.

Mrs. Roy Bond and child have been spend-