DEALERS HAVE'N

Board of Health Will Get the Names of Men Who Have Neglected to Take Out Proper Licenses.

Thursday, July 6.

The local board of health has always had difficulty in inducing milk dealers in the city to take out the necessary licenses. This year has not witnessed any startling improvement in that regard. All licenses are supposed to be renewed by May 1, but up to date only fifty of the documents have been issued. This leaves about thirty dealers who have not complied with the regulations and the names of these will be haded to the beauty at their next.

will be handed to the board at their next meeting.

In conversation with a Telegraph reporter yesterday afternoon T. M. Burns, the secretary of the board, said that the trouble seemed to be with the biggest dealers this year. He recalled that the board had altered the by-laws because the dealers had represented that doing so would make it easier for them. They had also obtained from the government free inspection of dairy herds. As the cost the license is only $1 it would seem, as said that there is willful neglect in many cases.

The Aberdeen school playgrounds are kept open for the children until early dark each evening. The teachers are not present, but members of the Every Day Club are there to take care of the little ones and give them free use of the swings slide and other features. The club's flat
