Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the sys-tem and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a con-stantly growing rep-utation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases; Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive dispoters of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipeias, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepplaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhoea, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of 1872.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 11 Yt is an antiente mariniere, And he stoppeth one of three; By thy long grey beard and glittering eye, Now wherefore stopps't thou me? Still, in thy hand I'd understand Why should that bottle be?

"The bridegroom's doors are opened wide, And I am next of kin; The guests are met, the feast is set, May'st hear the merry din. So, quick, I pray, thou'lt say thy say And let me enter in." He holds him with his glittering eye,— Ye wedding guest stood still, And listens like a three year's child,— Ye mariniere had his will; "My friend," saith, "this remedce Will Rheumatism kill."

Ye wedding guest sat on a stone, He cannot choose but hear, And thus spake on that antiente man, Ye bright eyed mariniere: "Neuralia, too, and Tio Doloreaux, It causes to disappear. "Tis a capital cure and always sure,
All others must go to the wall."
(Now ye wedding guest had a pain in his chest
The result of a dangerous fall).
So without any fuss, he pulled out his puss,
"Your stock—I will take it all."

Ye mariniere whose eye is bright,
Whose beard with age is hoar,
Isgone: and now ye wedding guest
Turns from ye bridegroom's door,
And in jigs and reels he kicks up his heels,
For his aches he feels no more. SPENSER.
