They have in St. John, on the police force, an autocrat named Jones who is in the habit of distinguishing himself by arbitrary acts intended to display his importance and make himself the terror of the women and children of the community in which he lives. A few days ago, finding it prudent to get away from St. John, this precious humbug made his way to Petiteodiac, then wan dered back into the woods armed with several pistols, shotguns, bowie knives, &c. Finally he came to the lumber camp and there decided to arrest one of the aumates, Mr. Tingley, and drag him off, handcuffed to the city, where this pretentious Jones is permitted to exercise a little brief authority. Tingley, of course, was perfectly innocent, as any one who knows him would readily have told his captor, and the Magistrate in St. John very soon dismissed the case. The only particular in which Jones distinguished himself in this matter was in the astonishing bravery he displayed in keeping two or three unarmed men at bay, with his seven shooters and shot guns. It is to be noted, however, that the men had no intention of assaultdiac, a few days ago, and his removal PORT OF SAINT JOHN. COAL. COAL. J. H. MURRAY & CO'S, W. W.
