We have relieved in all 128 cases, comprising nearly two hundred persons, men, women and children. We regret to record the death of L. Stafford, Esq., who was ready at all times to assist the Society. We have been indebted to Mr. Doyle, who has succeeded the late Mr. Stafford, and to Mr. Myrand, agent of the Richelieu Line, for many favors received during the past year, and our best thanks are hereby tendered them.

The whole respectfully submitted.

HEBER BUDDEN,
Chairman.
