

- Sealing, pelagic (North Pacific Fur Seals Conference), St. Lawrence Seaway (bridge construction at Cornwall Island; legal redress for damages arising from Seaway construction; navigation channel dredging at Cornwall Island), Strategic Air Command (James Bay Bombing Range; overflights, refuelling facilities), USSR (official visits and exchanges), Uranium Exports (general policy; UK and US), Western Europe (Immigration-Intergovernmental Committee on European Migration), Western European Integration (European Common Market)
- Alaska Panhandle, 514-518; Canadian statement concerning, 518; problems associated with panhandle for Canada, 515-517; proposals for "corridors" across, 514-515
- cotton subsidies, 295-300; Canadian aide-memoire protesting (July 25, 1956), 295-299; relation to GATT, 296-299; US reaction to aide-memoire, 299-300
- experimental sounding stations at Estevan Point, British Columbia, 202-204; approval of USN survey request, 203
- Frobisher Bay
 185-190; costs of operation, 189; transfer of operational control from RCAF to Department of Transport, 185-186, 188-189; USAF personnel: authorization for stationing at Frobisher Bay, 187-190; draft statement to be made to Permanent Joint Board on Defence, 190
- magazine advertising taxes, 230-257; Canadian proposal to levy excise tax on advertising in American magazines circulated in Canada, 230-235; circulation of American magazines in Canada, 231-232; decision to implement excise tax, 249-250, 253-254; discussion of by St. Laurent and Eisenhower at White Sulphur springs, 237-240; possible withdrawal of tax proposal, 244-246; US protest note concerning (July 7, 1956) and Canadian reply (Aug. 7, 1956), 243-244, 247-255; US protest note concerning (Mar. 28, 1957), 255-257; US representations concerning excise tax, 238-241
- Peace Bridge, 453-478; amendments to state legislation reconstituting Bridge Authority, 476-477; Canadian consultations with local bridge authorities, 462-468; discussions concerning form of agreement with New York State for reconstituted Bridge Authority, 472-475; proposal to establish international commission to control bridge, 468-471; state legislation affecting control of US portion of bridge by local bridge authorities, 453-461; toll collection, 454-455, 457, 474
- potato tariffs, 328-338; exchange of letters concerning tariff renegotiation, 331-332; GATT approval of schedule renegotiation, 334; proposals for reciprocal Canada-US agreement, 329-331; Tariff Board representations, 328; US approval of tariff revisions, 338
- Premium Iron Ores Limited, double taxation by US, 301317; Canadian aide-memoire to US concerning (Nov. 28, 1956), 312-313; and Double Taxation Agreement (1942), 301, 307, 309; history of company, 301-304, 307-308; informal Canadian representations to US concerning, 306-307; relation to Steep Rock Iron Mines Limited, 302-303, 305-306, 308; private representations by Cyrus Eaton, 314-317; US Tax Court decision favouring Premium, 317n
- Television on American Bases in Newfoundland, 191-195; role of Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, 193-195; unlicensed radio stations on US bases, 192-193, 195
- trans-Atlantic cable, 373-380; Ad Hoc Committee on Telecommunications Policy, 375; American note of protest concerning Bill 212, 380; Commercial Cable Company, 374-376; Canadian Overseas Telecommunications Corporation, 377-378; passage of Bill 212, 380; position of Department of External Affairs, 379-380; private representations opposing Bill 212, 377-378; Telegraphs Act amendments to license telecommunication facilities (Bill 212), 373-380; Western Union Telegraph Company, 375-376, 380
- visit of Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs to White Sulphur Springs, 1-12; inclusion of President of Mexico in talks, 1-4; topics discussed: Dulles' tour of Asia, 4-5; Formosa and Quemoy and Matsu, 6-7; Middle East, 5-6; rivers flowing across international boundaries, 7-8; Soviet economic offensive, 5-6
- Pearson-Dulles talks, 8-12; topics discussed: China policy, 12; discussion of Cyprus and North Africa at NATO Ministerial Council Meeting (May, 1957), 9-10; export of arms to the Middle