tente Hypocrisy and Lust of Conquest

WILHELM

Again Deludes His Subjects With His Inspired Revelations

By Courier Leased Wire.

Amsterdam, via London, Jan. 13.—The following proclamation by the Emperor to the German people has been officially published in Berlin:

Our enemies have dropped the mask. After refusing with scorn and hypocritical words of love for peace and humanity, our honest peace offer they have now in their reply to the United States gone beyond that and admitted their lust for conquest, the baseness of which is further enhanced by their calumnious assertions. Their aim is the crushing of Germany, the dismemberment of the powers allied with us and the enslavement of the freedom of Europe and the seas, under the same voke that Greece, with gnashing of teeth, is now en-

"But what they could not achieved in thirty months of the bloodiest fighting and unscrupulous economic war they will also fail to accomplish in the future. Our glorious victories and our iron strength of will with which our fighting people at the front, and at home, have borne all hardships and distress, guarantee that also in the future our beloved father and has nothing to fear. Burning indignation and holy wrath will redouble the strength of every German, man and woman, whether it is devoted to fighting, to work or to are impossible, "she will not be suffering. We are ready for all sacrifices. The God who planted his glorious spirit of freedom in the hearts of our brave peoples will also give us and our loyal allies, tested in battle, the full victory over all

This paper considers that even if the Allies' peace offers are extreme, there is still hope of a compromise, because it is expected that Germany will now also publish her peace terms. The Tidningen calls attention to the phrase in the Allies' reply demanding free economic development of all states, and says that it indicates that plans for economic war against Germany after military operations have been abandoned and leaves the wav open for further negetiation. Germany Backs Down in Her Deportations as Result of Holland's Protests

By Courier Leased Wire. Berlin, Jan. 12-via Lendon, Jan. 13.—Germany has notified Holland that Belgian workmen deported from that country into Antwerp, will be given the option of returning to their homes in Belgium if unable to find work or of removing to Holland or of going to Germany. This step is taken in consequence of Holland's representations based ernor of Antwerp in October 1914 Holland. The military governor sured the fugitives if they returned they would not be drafted for forced labor for Germany. The German communication explains that these assurances were given under quite different circumstances from the present and under the explanation that the war would be a matter of months only, but that Germany has decided to acknowledge and respect
