dollars if he thinks the borrower is prosperous; but if he knew that he was really in want he would not lend him fifty cents.

Half a dozen chickens have, before now, been the cause of a rupture in a friendship between neighbors of several years' standing.

The man with the biggest bible in his window is not always the safest person to give credit to.

The girl who is admired for her splendid figure when walking along the street, is not the one that a sculptor should always select as a model for the Greek Slave.

A good padlock on the woodshed door has often been the means of preserving peace and harmony between neighbors. You can always put more confidence in your next-door neighbor when you know your woodshed door is locked.

Dr. Pierce's "Pellets," or sugar-coated granules—the original "little liver pills," (beware of imitations)—cure sick and bilious headache, cleanse the stomach and bowels, and purify the blood. To get genuine, see Dr. Pierce's signature and portrait on Government stamp. 25 cents per vial, by druggists.

A Cleveland paper says that John Senter, of that city, shot himself on the south side. A man who can't come any nearer the centre than that had better practice.

Since 1863 Dr. J. Rolph Malcolm, 357 King Street west, Toronto, has made a specialty of treating bronchitis, catarrh, consumption etc., by the inhalation of vaporized remedies. If unable to call for personal consultation send for book and list of questions.
