"How to be Beautiful."

MRS. GERVAISE GRAHAM, after whom our business was named and whose preparations we still sell, was ABSOLUTELY the first complexion specialist to issue a book "How to be Beautiful." Since then every would-be specialist imitates her advertisement. For six years we have been successful dermatologists in Toronto. In that time dozens of other people, not knowing that "imitation is the sincerest flattery," have tried to become dermatologists to the Canadian ladies, but not understanding their business they succeeded only in giving up, one after another, within a few months. WE ARE STILL HERE.
