ADDRESS to His Majesty from the Inhabitants of Lenox and Addington.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, inhabitants of the counties of Lenox and Addington, in the midland district and province of Upper Canada, beg leave humbly and respectfully to tender our most hearty and sincere thanks to Your Majesty, for the consideration which Your Majesty has been pleased to bestow upon the representations and petitions of Your Majesty's subjects in this province, as evinced by the despatch of Lord Goderich, Your Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 8th Nov. 1832, and transmitted by His Excellency the Lieutenant-governor Sir John Colborne, to the House of Assembly, during the recent session of our provincial parliament. Trusting, as we do, that the paternal care manifested in that despatch, and a free, unrestrained and direct communication between Your Majesty's Government and the people of Upper Canada, will be the means of perpetuating the bonds of loyalty, affection and gratitude which bind us to Your Majesty's person and government, and believing that the various measures of reform mentioned in the despatch, many of which have long been most anxiously desired by a large majority of the people of this province, if adopted, cannot fail to render Your Majesty's faithful subjects more prosperous, contented and happy.

ADDRESS to His Majesty from the Inhabitants of Cobourg.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects of the town of Cobourg and its vicinity, beg leave to renew the pledges of our fidelity and loyal attachment to Your Majesty's person and government, and to express our unfeigned gratitude for the interest Your Majesty has always taken in the welfare of this province, and especially for Your Majesty's benevolent concurrence in the liberal suggestions contained in the despatch of Your Majesty's Colonial Secretary, the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Goderich, bearing date the 8th of November last.

It has occasioned no less surprise than regret, that this wise and conciliatory act of Your Majesty's Government, which reflects the highest honour on their justice and liberality, and which has called forth the grateful feelings of Your Majesty's loyal subjects in Upper Canada, has not been met with corresponding sentiments by our local legislature.

We owe it to Your Majesty, and to Your Majesty's Government, as well as to ourselves, to give our unhesitating assurance, that the sentiments of gratitude thus conveyed are in common with those of the great body of the people, and that Your Majesty's condescending kindness has thereby strengthened the bond which unites both countries together.

That Your Majesty will continue to pay a parental regard to the just complaints of Your Majesty's Canadian subjects, and that Your Majesty's Government will always consult the prosperity and happiness of the province, we confidently anticipate; and we pray that Your Majesty may long reign over a prosperous, united and happy people.
