	February 9		The snow-plow we borrowed from No. 1 I.T.S. did a good job of clearing the Parade Ground, but it looks strange now with a high white wall all around. Flying Officer R.B. Langille, A.F.H.Q., lectured the School of Aviation Medicine.
	February 10		Flight Lieutenant Bishop, Fire Officer from No. 1 Training Command, inspected the School and held a meeting of the Fire Committee to express his satisfaction.

	February 12		Normal routine.
	February 13		An army detachment visited the School and were lectured by the Commanding Officer and shown aircraft recognition slides. They seemed to feel the lecture particularly graphic.
	February 14		Course No. 43 graduated. A very delightful dance celebrated the formal opening of the Officers Mess. Distinguished guests included Air Commodore Brookes, Air Officer Commanding No. 1 Training Command, Wing Commander Richards, S.P.O., Wing Commander Chalk, P.M.O., Squadron Leader Hedges, Commanding Officer of the C.W.A.A.F. Depot, and others. The entrance to the Mess was only completed late in the afternoon, but showed a remarkable improvement over the previous appearance.
	February 15		Protestant and R.C. Church Parades. Movies in the evening.
	February 16		The Victory Loan Parade was called off because of heavy rain.
