

time!

How happy your mother would be over your success.
Anyway she knows all about it and it is her influence that has put you where you are today.

Please remember me to your brother when you write and with all sorts of good wishes for your future career.

Very Sincerely Yours -
Clara E. Ayler -

Mrs. E. P. Ayler,

Dear Mrs. Ayler,

Friday evening -

Dear Mr. King,
You have no idea how delighted I was, upon hearing, this morning that you had been Chosen "Leader" of the party - a Protestant and a man - Do you remember my prophecy at Mrs Parker's dance, about the future Premier - Looks as if the prophesies, of the Irish, were coming
