

The reason in thought of Billie was away on night & afraid of their from a great thunderstorm or it might be just out of sight the night by my illness is over the case of him had and the gentle consideration & my disturbance of the fresh air, had been everything & make me strong.

I once thought of coming home myself if Billie went.
Away but he would not have of about a thing and it would be a great mistake for me not & take all the benefit and pleasure I can get.
John will give you a glowing description of our things for certainly the sea never get any other price like some others here.
You says she thinks it's more than good of you to say for her to stay but

Her father's affection will be some more.

That was given to showing description of your home things. I am sure she has the same of her life's riding up but we all know that it will mean in our homecoming Billie and you are united in a very nice picture. Jim wrote a note to tell her why she did not accept. In return she did not get a letter back saying she would all this.

But as you had not so she wrote a note to tell her why
she did not accept. In return
she did not get a letter back saying
she would all this.
But next Saturday - Jim has the pleasure of writing another note before she leaves this time.
The protests are coming

King, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie (MG 26 J 7 vol.4) Family Letters July 1905

National Archives of Canada Archives nationales du Canada

001698 A