

roof that with young & the carpenter had to stop! Haven't today been a terrible day? I ^{BOLDERFEL} ^{GARRIE} down to write to you this afternoon but simply couldn't do it - went to bed & slept for three hours! When I waked up I felt like going off again but tea was ready & I had to get up. Since then I have been reading to the children etc. I have just got them into bed.
I had a very happy birthday. My wife me half a dozen stainless steel knives & half a dozen forks. I also some note paper which has not arrived yet, John a "stain" store for picnics, Jean two glasses, three snows caps, a dozen picnic plates & a dozen paper cups, Pearl a "stain" and Mary J. some cake tins. The three older children brought their presents with
