

Q/ Did you offer any resistance to Cpl. Beeching?

A- No, sir, I didn't.

Q- What means of identification did you have?

A- I had my soldier's Pay Book.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: (To the Court)

Sir, if the Court wishes, I have the accused's pay book.

BY THE COURT:

Oh, no. That is not necessary.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER: (continuing to examine)

Q- Why did you keep that Pay Book, Harvey?

A- Because I was coming back to the Army.

Q- You had intended to return, is that it?

A- Yes, sir, I did.

Q- Before you went on the loose, how much training had you completed?

A- Well, I was doing my G.M.T., sir.

Q- After you completed your training, you were willing to go overseas, were you?

A- Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q- Harvey, you became absent without leave at 2000 hours on the 28th July, 1944, is that correct?

A- That is correct, sir, I believe it is.

Q- You remained absent without leave until you were apprehended?
