

The yacht it is so big and fine
And cozy as a home,
Has everything aboard you need
While out upon the foam.

We all appreciate so much
The pleasure of the trip,
And all the comforts that we had,
For which we thank the Skip.

And now I've told you nearly all,
Some more of course I might,
But for the present I will close
And bid you all good night.