

LESSON XI.

ăct	spĕnt	Hũgh	bōasts
wĕnt	scâre	Brăgg	a frăid'
miss	brāve	voice	Sũn'day
knew	snēer	shāme	said (sĕd)
trĭes	small	mĕant	does (dũz)

HUGH BRAGG.

HUGH BRAGG is a boy with a loud voice. He boasts that he fears no one.

2. He tries to scâre all the small boys. He thinks he is brave, but he is not. A brave boy does not talk nor act as he does.

3. One Sunday, when he was on his wāy to Măss, some rude boys, who did not know what the Mass meant, said, "Oh, see good Hugh Bragg on his wāy to church!"