THE LOCAL BUDGET

Judge Houston was in Newbury yesterday on business.

The Oataraet is in from Georgian Bay with lumber for W. M. Drader.

Miss Baker, of Brussels, is the guest of Mrs. E. R. Putnam, Queen street.

Rev. Jasper Wilson, of Ridgeway, is the guest of his brother, J. A. Wilson.

Park Bros are putting 20,000 feet of piping in Wm. Gray & Sons' new building for heating purposes.

It's Disagreeable! It's Dangerous!!

The moment you take a cold, as you are very liable to do at this time of the year, you surely realize that the little unpleasantness connected with it is not all. You surely know that CON-SUMPTION is on the increase in this country, and that nine-tenths of the disease is caused by neglecting Coughs and Colds.

Our Bloodroot Cough Cure (25c a bottle) is guaranteed to cure any cough or cold of not more than 3 months' standing. Your money back if it does not cure it

DRUGGISTS and OPTICIANS.

CHATHAM and DRESDEN.

The meeting of the Park street church Reading Circle which was to have been held this evening, has been withdrawn.

The key-note address of the Epworth League convention for to-morrow morning will be given by Wilson Taylor, B. A., of the C. C. I., at 9.20.
The subject is "The Literary Department of League Work."

At the Division Court this morning before his honor Judge Woods, the International Harvester Works, James King and Frank E. Gerber sued William Higgins, of the Township of Harwich, for $500. The case arose out of the trade of a mare for a moving machine. The horse died two weeks after. J. B. Rankin, K. C., appeared for defendant and O. L. Lewis for plaintiffs.

Jerome J. Moss, formerly of Dover, and cousin of Frank Bechard, head clerk of Geo. Stephens & Co., who has been in the genus' furnishing business at the Canadian Soc., has returned here, having sold out his business. Mr. Moss says business at the Soc. is flat and he decided to get out while possible. His intentions are to start up business, probably in this section.

The joint committee from the County and City agreed this afternoon to accept the report of Mayor McKeough and Warden Robinson and appointed Auditor R. H. Macpherson to adjust the accounts between the City and County. A clause to accept Mr. Macpherson's decision as final was dropped from the report before it was adopted and after considerable discussion.

Wellington Duff and William Jenkins went hunting yesterday.
When they were crossing the lands of a prominent Harwich farmer the latter came rushing out waving his hands very excitedly and yelling, "Boy, hey, don't you see those notices 'against trespassing.' Wellington as soon as he got inside the talking line calmly and sarcastically responded, "No, I don't see those notices. Do you think that I would come all the way out here carrying a gun just to look for signs. We're hunting quail." Wellington says that this satisfied the farmer and he let them go.

AT WORK

Splendid Inaugural Rehearsal of the Maple City's "Robin Hood" Opera Company.

The enterprise, inaugurated by the officers of the 24th Regiment and their friends, of presenting the magnificent opera "Robin Hood," by the talented amateurs of the Maple City, got a splendid and auspicious start last evening.

Despite the inclement weather, in all eighty-one of the young ladies and gentlemen who have kindly volunteered their assistance in the undertaking gathered in the auditorium over the Standard Bank for the initial rehearsal and the work accomplished was most encouraging.

The hall was splendidly heated and lighted through the courtesy of Major Scholfield, and a cloak room was provided in the ante-chamber.

The piano used was the handsome and ever popular Mason and Risen, which was kindly loaned by the couteous and enterprising district manager, Frank Babcock. The Mason and Risen piano will be used throughout the rehearsals and also for the production of the opera, and its splendid and rich tone occasioned much delightful comment.

Miss Flossie Bogart, the accompanist, young organist of Christ Church, presided at the instrument, and her skilled playing contributes much to the success of the undertaking.

J. W. Wilson performed the responsible and arduous duties of musical director and proved himself a gentleman with the baton.

The evening was devoted largely to the study of two of the choruses. The introductory "Springtime" greeting to the market dull but prices are firm. We quote: No. 1, $9.50 to $10.00; No. 2, $8.50 to $9.00; clover, mixed, $7.50 to $8.00; per

W. W. Mitchell (Caretaker of Post Office) on the Chamberlain Weather Strip.

For the past five years we have been trying to attach something to the windows in the customs office to shut off the wind and cold. Until now all appliances have failed.

This year we tried the Chamberlain Metal Weather Strip. We are not only satisfied with the results but are delighted.

The Strip absolutely shuts off all wind and cold and makes the windows fit snug and tight. It has many advantages over storm windows.

FELL OVERBOARD

Mate of a Steam Barge Meets Death in Lake St. Clair—Reward for the Body

Edwin McVittie, aged 21 years, mate of the steam barge "Lily Smith," fell overboard and was drowned yesterday morning about six o'clock in Lake St.
Clair, about three miles from the mouth of the Thames river.

Captain J. E. Willacott gave The Planet the following account of the sad affair.

The Lily Smith was off the mouth of the river about nine o'clock Sunday evening in a dense fog with calm sea, and dodged about till midnight expecting the weather to clear. It did not, however, and the barge anchored with No. 1 in tow.

About 5.45 the following morning Mate McVittie, the unfortunate young man, came to breakfast and conversation sprang up about the boat dragging her anchor during the night, as it had been snowing and blowing quite heavily.

Immediately after breakfast Mc-Vittie said he would go forward to warm up the steam windlass, so it could be used down aft, got his oilskin coat and lantern as it was very dark. He went to the top of the stairway and it is supposed that he tripped or slipped and went overboard. No one heard a splash of water, or a scream.

About twenty minutes after six someone asked where the mate was, and a hunt through this vessel was immediately instituted, without success.

Edwin McVittie was the only son and support of a widowed mother, who was formerly of Southampton, but now lives at 44 Golden Ave., Toronto. He was also a nephew of Captain Willacott, who speaks in the very highest terms of him as a straight-forward, industrious and sober young man.

In his clothes on the boat was found $74 in cash and a Post Office bank check showing $100 to his credit. The captain said he always kept his mother well supplied.

Captain Willacott is offering a reward of $25 for the recovery of the body, the finder to notify Dr. J. L.
Bray, coroner.

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Cresolin tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

The best, which is not always the highest priced, is the cheapest.

Take Time By the Forelock and the Worry Out of Christmas...

Oh how heads do ache, and brains do worry around Christmas time and do you know its all because people keep putting things off procrastinating till the last minute, waiting until they have a thousand and one things to do, before they do the little shopping errands that might be put out of the way day by day, waiting until the fine choice things have all been picked up before they buy their most important presents. You'll agree that it's an awful mistake and then go right ahead piling up your trouble for Christmas week, and just fretted and worried out by Christmas morning, and spoil your enjoyment of the happiest day of the year. Don't do it this year but commence right now by visiting this store and seeing all the good things we have ready for you to choose from.

This Store has a Christmas Stock to be Proud of.

This store is an every day store, abundance of everything that you need for the wants of to-day and to-morrow, whether it be cold or rainy or what the weather, AUSTIN can fit you out to suit the weather, but in addition this year we have made extra preparations for Christmas buyers. Every department is crowded with goods that are suggestive as gifts. Our stock of burnt woods, and ebony woods in jewel cases, dressing cases and smoking cases, travelling companions, etc., is of the broadest variety. We are fortunate in making arrangements to buy these goods direct from the manufacturers and the prices we are selling them at are a revelation to many who have inspected them.
