

THERE IS NOTHING FOR THE LIVER SO GOOD AS MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, and will tone, renovate, and purify the liver, removing every result of liver trouble from the temporary, but disagreeable, bilious headache to the severest forms of liver complaint.

Mrs. John R. Barton, Mill Cove, N.B., writes:—"I suffered, more than tongue can tell, from liver troubles. I tried several kinds of medicine, but got no relief until I got Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They are a wonderful remedy."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per vial, or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THRIFT.

GOSSIP.

OUR TRIPPING AUTHORS.

A line by W. J. Locke, runs: "He talked incessantly all the time." Oh, Willyum!—Writes Arnold Bennett: "She won fifteen thousand francs in as many minutes." Pretty long session that!—Another novelist says: "Her eyes filled with silent tears." Generally they boom like billows, you know.—According to another, the hero "brushed her hair with his lips." Scarcely an improvement on the old method, we think.—Another writer remarks: "Charlotte von Stern was, when Goethe first met her, several years older than himself." But later, of course, 'twas otherwise.—"He rested his feet on the back of a chair, and blew smoke-rings with half-closed eyes." We've seen it done with the mouth.—"Marjorie would often take her eyes from the deck and cast them far out to sea." As a caster, old Ike Walton had nothing on Margie, believe us!—"Speechless with horror and loathing, I tottered a helpless jelly against the jamb." We believe that the mess was cleaned up in the next chapter.—Boston Transcript.

FRENCH DRAFT STALLIONS NOT RECOGNIZED IN SASKATCHEWAN.

Regarding the enrollment of stallions in Saskatchewan, a letter from J. Cochran Smith, Deputy Live-stock Commissioner, draws attention to the fact that French draft stallions are not eligible for registration as pure-breds. Mr. Smith explains as follows:

"A stallion is enrolled in Saskatchewan as a pure-bred only upon the production of its certificate of record in the name of the present owner, either, (1) in the Canadian National Live-stock Records, Ottawa, or (2) in a foreign studbook recognized by the Canadian Record Committee, if there is no Canadian Record for the particular breed to which such stallion belongs.

"In the case of a French draft stallion, pure-bred enrollment cannot be given, because there is no Canadian Record of French draft horses, and no foreign record of such horses is recognized by the Record Committee, Ottawa. "There are two foreign records of French draft horses. They are, respectively: The National Registry of French Draft Horses, Fairfield, Iowa, U. S. A., and the French Draft Studbook of France, France. The American Record is not and cannot be recognized, because only a record maintained in the country of origin of a breed (in this case, France) is considered by the Record Committee. The French record is not and cannot be recognized because in it horses of several different and distinct breeds—Percherons, Boulonnais, Nivernais, Ardennais, Breton, etc.—and crosses between these breeds are recorded indiscriminately.

"A few French draft stallions are also pure-bred Percherons. If these stallions can be recorded with the Percheron Society of America (Chicago), and can then be recorded at Ottawa in the Canadian Percheron Studbook, they can be enrolled in Saskatchewan as pure-breds. But they will be enrolled as Percherons, and not as French draft stallions.

"A French draft stallion may be enrolled in Saskatchewan as a 'Grade' if it can be shown that such stallion was sired by a Percheron stallion recorded in a recognized Percheron Studbook, whether Canadian, American, or French. If it cannot be shown that a French draft stallion was sired by a registered Percheron stallion, such stallion, after August 1, 1912, will be enrolled as a 'scrub'."

Sir Edward Carson, in his slow, apparently-lazy way, rose to his feet to cross-examine a witness whose face and nose left little room to doubt his bibulous tendencies. "Are you a very hard drinker, sir?" asked Carson, as he looked the man up and down. "That's my business," came the answer. Carson shrugged his shoulders. "Have you got any other business, sir?"

Teacher—"When Washington was your age he was a surveyor."

Pupil—"When he was your age he was President."
